When you play as GDI you can make it in the NOD base easily thats is if there is no people around. 1: The Obelisk is not as good as AGT trust me I have gotten into a base going head on to the base. Because the obelisk can't really home on it's enemy unless it's a tank but a person can get by just by zig zagging. But it's hard on people playing as NOD, also you must be good to do this. I hope this helps people, and plz no flameing me, and it's also a little unfair ain't it?

I agree with this. I have reported everyone who does this. If you can't play with people who are better than you, then maybe you should get some more skill at the game instead of hiding on your own server.

So it is not just only me that thinks this is happening.I knew they were bad evul guys out there doing this.Ever got the selectuve packet drop?When those whiners would only play in a real host game, I'd be so cruel to them, they'd be spending most gametime respawning.

And here's the re-iteration, that this was about n00b servers in general, with the unfortunate mentioning of the grand Kraftcola server name, suffering from a FDS bug that got me upset./end lick.

Sure, he mentioned it ONCE but that was only for one of his complaints. How does that make his entire list of complaints an attack against your server?! obviously don't know his actual intent with the posts, but I didn't read any attack into it.. at least not against any particular server.[ May 06, 2002: Message edited by: kubi0461 ]

Did you consider the possibility that the game was a "no base****" game? Check the MOTD to see the admin's rules.

Yeah pretty much...the more posts I read from MI6...the more I want to create an auto-ban for his name when I have my server up. Your annoying bro and your complaints come off like a disgruntled daycare kid who wants more cookies.

Destroyed the hand of nod with c4. Destroyed the tiberium refinery. Then i go to the enemy with my heli and beacon. Placed it on top of the powerplant. Got back in the heli and shot the airstrip. Pp destroyed. Only the airstrip was left with only one line health. I did this so quickly that i felt sorrow for them so i got back and didn't destroy the airstrip. All this in 6 minutes wall map with 8 people. Problem I lost. LOL
