I am sitting in my base and then all of a sudden I hear "Ion Cannon Beacon Deployed" in EVA's sexy voice (I am GDI BTW)...I am thinking 'OK I wonder which of their structures it kills'...*BOOM*EVA's sexy voice again: "GDI Weapons Factory Destroyed."WTF is this?[May 21, 2002: Message edited by: AnarmEof1]

In some games a prick on your own team will set an ION Beacon off in your own building, which normally won't do anything but * people off, but if that character that set the Ion Beacon LEAVES the game before it goes off, the Ion Beacon becomes NEUTRAL and will destroy your building.............some people have been doing this to be pricks..............

(I'm glad this hasn't happened to me..... yet!)

I just hate that you can't disarm the sonuva when it's deployed. I've had games where this happened over and over again... and well, it was some bunk ass * However, now I'm choked at all you dumb SOBs for spreading the word on how it's done, so more dumbass mutha*a's are gonna be pulling this bull* This crap is quite possibly the most infuriating aspect of this game, made all the worse by the fact that if FF is off, I can't stop the punk  from gettin' his jollies off(if the host won't b00t em)
