To create a new account you can only fill an a desired username and password and just click login.
If the nick is already taken the 'Message of the Day' will say 'Password Invalid' near the bottom.
If it does just take another nick and try again.

The buttons dont work anymore.

And check the stickies this is all in there

EDIT: aww Goztow beat me to it

Que?

Omar and Goztow posted at the same time (or close enough) and thus wouldn't have seen each other's posts.
