Being in our last phase of dev before the release of script 4.0, we are recruiting people such as:

- 1) mappers (1 to 3)
- 2) test leader (1)
- 3) testers (20; maybe more)

If you are interested, send me an email (renardin@gmail.com) and your references on your previous experiences.

To give you an idea of how the mod is functional now, here is a run trough of our current internal beta. It needs maps and players! (this beta isn't running last script 4.0 beta so it may not give the best visual result)

Even though I'm already a tester, mind if I re-apply as a mapper? I'd enjoy doing some DM map work, as that's more or less my specialty.

please do.

You might be selected without previous experience, just show us why we should pick you.

So do you guys have all the building presets available for mappers. Edit: the laser tank that you showed in the video (i forgot the name).The emitter attached to the gun looks bad you should mess with the line properties.
