Seriously, its one of the worst rts in history. I cant believe I've touched beta, its much better to read all Harry Potter books. Game play is all about spam,spam,spam, right click throw everything at everything. No Micro, No Brain use, gg retard spam.

Even if it is, I doubt they will change the core gameplay mechanics they have been advocating. i.e, crawlers, no tib fields, no harvs, no bases etc etc

Yeah, unless they manage to throw in a new multiplayer game mode, it doesn't look too promising. I can deal with the crawlers thing, and the no tib fields (despite tiberium being a huge story thing), and the no harvs. But no bases? What?

And the scale in general seems so much smaller... unit caps, etc. That's just bullshit.

I like the LOOKS of things, and I like how they're placing emphasis on more tactical combat- but they don't need to get rid of bases and make it feel like an RTS version of battlefield...

True, the gameplay probably won't change dramatically, but I'm sure by all the negative feedback they are getting, some things will change.

It seems to be, yeah. Atleast the teams are unique, though. That pissed me off SO MUCH in WiC- the teams were so generic, and had no real differences other than different models.

It's like Dawn of War 2 with Crawlers essentially.

Its alright when you start off but once you get to the max level it gets boring as fuck.

that's about 20 games or so.

the support faction thingy is the one i find the most fun, but every game i played, its not many, like 10-15 or so, GDI always won, NOD was never close to win, so if you want to win GDI is your shot (Also they have Orcas!!!)

Honestly, I thought it was boring right from the beginning. I think I've played ten matches; the gameplay is way too linear and non-strategic.

Na not really, i see NOD win lot just the dam striker spam is annoying as hell. I love to play the Offensive class. I always use my crawler as another unit. The nubs think(O SHIT, if i focus my fire on the crawler ill get 50 XP!?!?!?) but i always have like 6-7 eng's reping it in the back . Priceless

If Rev11 fixes this spam then ill MAYBE ill give C&C4 another chance.
