First you should be able to parachute out of the chopper-makes assaults MUCH easier and cooler! Also you should parachute when you aircraft gets blown up BUT you open it instead of it being automatic, so you can wait till your 20 feet off the ground open it, then cut it (like the S.E.A.L's H.A.L.O drop) because you still survive the fall and can't be hit while 'chutting down. Can you try it aircraftkiller?

I think some people argued this already. I remember the main disturbance was that you couldn't parachute out of a chopper anyways.

I think things should stay how they are... It's all fine for me.

Well, you normally can't have your tank blown up and survive, but people don't complain about that [May 14, 2002: Message edited by: NightAces]

And lot's of other things that don't normally happen.

There is a mod where you can use parachutes. I've seen it 4 times
