Hi, I have a couple nicknames registered with XWIS.

One being this one and another being sKePTiCaL.

Over many years I have had a few copies of Renegade, meaning a few serials too.

I tried the XWIS password resetter but sKePTiCaL is not linked with the serial I am using today and I have no idea where the other copies of Renegade are lying around.

Is there any chance of resetting the password on sKePTiCaL?

Kind regards,

Dave.

Nope. You must be using the serial that you registered the name with.
