I have recently gotten confused about buying sound card and surround sound system, basically what i mean is i think i understand what these mean

2
4
5
7
8

but iv seen system that say

5.1
7.1
i think even 8.1

now are those the number on inputs/outputs and if so what is the .1 at the end like u see above(7.1 etc or 4.1)

and whats channels

iv seen one that said 7.1 8-channel

please fill me in and help me out understand this more

sorry for such a noob question

If you're looking for a nice system for your computer, Logitech X-540s are great and are cheap on Amazon.
