Redirects are awesome.

Only posting this because my Internet opportunities are few and far between.

And with that, I'm off. I have four hours of sleep and a crapload of maintenance forms to fill out ahead of me.

Damn it, on my quest to use a unique color on the APB forums, I chose green because red (at the time) was too hard to read. I never saw one of his posts and now I'm feeling unoriginal. It's a good thing I switch to blue then, eh?

Oh well.

Anyway... good luck In the Navy.

But if I did that, then people wouldn't be able to be enlightened by my ever informative and entertaining posts!

Or just unplug your keyboard, so then you get to say what you want...and we don't have to read it.

Win-win.
