Top Six Reasons You Are a N00b1) You repair a building after it's destroyed2) "You yell How bout we nuke em with our Ion Beacons" (Yes I said lets nuke with an ion)3) You get out of your vehical and start repairing it when you are being atacked from all sides, Resulting in the enemy jumping into it and running you over4) You use the ~extras fnkqrrm and get a pick-up truck5) You Jump out of a flying vehical in high air, right before it is destroyed to save yourself, but you're so high you die trying6) You say NOD instead of Nod, some people do this don't they know that GDI is and abrevation and Nod is a word.[ May 26, 2002: Message edited by: apocypher ][ May 26, 2002: Message edited by: apocypher ]

Lol, I'm almost always the MVP and I do a few of those things (the ion with nuke thing for instance, as well as pickup truck).Forgive me if I'm wrong, but I thought a n00b was things such as friendly tank stealing and not typos

Not everyone has time to type perfectly under fire.Most of my typing consists of "SNIPER" or "get vechs, go for APC rush" or "beacon run"

"nuke" just happens to be gaming slang for things like "blow up", or "destroy".Example: I blew up the tank; I nuked the tank. I did not set a nuke on the tank, I NUKED it...meaning blew it to hell.

In the mesa with the caves I hate those dumb ass newbs who put the beacons in the caves. When it is possible to sneak past the first rock, to the second rock and then you can duck near this part of the refinery. I did this in a game and I typed to everyone "False Alarm, I see it in the cave" The other team belived me and a couple seconds later they had no refinery.

that's actually not too bad a tactic: place several beacons in harmless locations, and they get complacent. Then one on the pedestal, and they're finished. And you just gotta love the field repair people... some dumb artie driver jumped out right at the base entrance on city, and about a minute later my jacked ride had decimated PP, airstrip, and Ob. n00bs are wonderful...as long as they're not on YOUR team. I mean, how can you resist an enemy engine repairing you? It's just so perfect....they shoot you with the repair gun instead of their buildings... [ May 27, 2002:

I mean it the best thing that happened to a sniper match a vehicle to drive that has no weapon. And I agree with NukeIt15 about the use of the word "nuke".

bonus, that is), and I've survived with one health, because I made a desperate attempt to escape enemy fire, instead of giving up.

I think it's great when you fall out with 1 health and get away I usually just sneak back to my base and get repaired but if I'm far I'll just go on a mission that's complete suicide sometimes is fun to use extras and the pickup or sedan. because newbies dont relize its a enemy vehical and let it pass unmolested. and then they loose the ref and pp.

the Extras FNKQRRM trick is a great trick. It's not a full cheat unless of course it's a no vehicle, then you can run over unexpecting ground troops with the pick-up The characters just wear different suits, they have the same guns as the regular troops. Although you could sneak past a
