I was a chem trooper strafing thru the tibarian on volcano and 1 regular engy was shooting at me with pistol from a distance I was shooting him while strafing and jumping and he hit me for massive damage (like a direct headshot) on every bullet- Than I said they he had an aim bot on "all chat" and didn't even respond. than later in the game I was a raveshaw and I noticed I was getting hammered quickly and I died before I could turn around and it was again that same person as before with a pistol and an engy. Also he was chatting with 1 other dude the entire game alot and I noticed his guns doing huge damage on me also no matter if I strife or jump it was always a direct headshot hit type damage!! Also I noticed that those 2 people had almost 2 times the amount of kills in that game than anybody else. I think thats proof enough. 1 was I think named "Dirtyharry"BTW-This was in a 32 player tourny server[May 27, 2002: Message edited by: AzWhoopin]

I was in the same situ that you were in as a raveshaw and ... 1 shot from a pistol ... and I was dead. what can you do? I have been told time and time again that there are no aimbots for renegade ... but that is just a matter of time. I think that we would have heard about them somewhere else. Now, I have heard a lot of talk about damage modifiers ... still haven't found anyone reliable to tell me about them though. I have also heard of people jacking up the hit pts on mammoths and the indestructalbe c4. Haven't seen any mammoths like that yet but I have come across c4 that you can't disarm. So , unfortuneatly there will be those who do find a way to cheat. Maybe, someone can explain why they have to; to me

Ravishaw killed a tank in 2 hits! Not possible during fair play, so it has to be a cheat if no one got close enough to place C4. The RailGun is not strong enough to take 400 points of Health/Armor away in 1 shot, you may be able to kill a Hum-Vee with 2 or 3 well place shots, but not a GDI M-Tank. Only T-C4 anc kill an M-Tank in 2 hits. ... I think it is only 2, shrug It may be 3.[May 27, 2002: Message edited by: IModx1]

I've killed 10 people at once with a well placed timed C4 but 20 people is too much. Try bringing it to WWs attention by direct email. Dev is at E3 this week so it might be a while till he gets back here but if it is a cheat it's best to let them know or else the game will be ruined by cheaters and no one will play anymore.

No one will every belive someone claiming they were a victom of cheating. If you wanna prove it then take a screen shot. If you dont know how it's the PRint Screen button above delete and insert. Then you have to Alt+Tab or Alt+Esc open up a basic paint program Paste and Save.

And I have never heard of AimBots for Renegade. However, I have heard about something known as "Good aiming skills". Btw, watch the red bars appearing on your screen, you may be being attacked from many sides. Plus, something I've noticed many times: When you shoot someone, they will lose health, but won't see it after a while. Sometimes when I'm sniping, I miss the head and hit the lower body. Then just quick reload and again, they didn't have time to move an inch... I've seen it happen even with auto-rifle: I had full health and was repairing a building. All-of-a-sudden, my armor is gone and health drops to 60. Then I try to run, but get boinked right away. Yes, with an auto-rifle... [Btw, this is my longest post ever]

I am an experienced player at this game and I played plenty to know when I am getting cheated.. I know what the norm is and whats fishy.. When my energy goes down 60Pts at a time each with 1 shot of a pistol without even 1 miss with me jumping and moving in every direction from a distance close to the max range of a pistol while I am chem spraying and died in like 3 secs, with no lag, no explanation but it was a cheat.. I know what I seen and no screenshot could prove it anyway, it will just be a picture of me getting shot, i would need a video of it.

how many shots did he take? I know that you can whack someone with half a clip if you aim good.And also, an every-time headshot with a weapon like the ppistol isn't that hard, all you have to do is keep the little dot on your enemy's noodle and plug 'em. It's not as if you're going to be taking people from long range with the thing, so you can always SEE their head.

I like how in a game last night, a Sydney not only saw my stealth tank from far outside the normal viewing range of an infantry unit, but one of my clanmates was on my team and he was a stealth hand walking out of our base on Field and he got sniped right away. He wasn't doing anything, he was cloaked, and there was no one else the sniper was shooting at so he didn't just accidentally get in the way or anything, he was seen and killed by this same person.

More cheating witnessed by me tonight... A guy on my team nuked each one of our own buildings, killing them. This was on a server where friendly fire is off, and I checked since I know the admin of the server. The same person who nuked our own buildings also shot me in the head once and killed me during the next game. I was a chem trooper with full life, and he was a regular rifle soldier. He shot me once, and I took 250 damage and died. Unbelievable, to be sure...By the way, since the spelling/grammar police are here, it's "mispelled" not "mispelt." Since my first post on this thread I have a lot more attention to engies and the more I look the more I can understand someones frustration. I took some high HP characters today with an eng/hotwire and was accused of cheating. I usually got 3-4 shots before they ever noticed I was there and killed them with a couple of more shots. I noticed that when I did this the person on question was just too focused on what he/she was doing instead of looking for little old me. the pistol is a good weapon because you simply can't hear from 20 or so feet away. I even begun using it as a stealth as I can usually get right behind someone and get 2-3 headshots. Which will put down most anyone.

I was an eng in one game and I pistoled this one guy three times to death. His name is "Pass2beer". And he had the guts to say to all "someone is using an aim mod". So I said"yeah, like your head, what aim mod" then he got *ed off! I was laughing to myself so hard. Even though he then beat my team twice, I have the last laugh, aim mod, whatever, try to dodge, it helps! p.s. I think he is a good player (since he rank higher than me), but just had a really sad

I heard there was a cheat, but only a rumor, no one has ever showed the cheat program. I'm not saying there isn't one, there could easily be a cheat. I have amazed people before with my head shots as an engineer. Mostly they seem to be lagging players with expensive characters or people using expensive characters taking my engineer (and his pistol) for granted.

And he had the guts to say to all "someone is using an aim mod". So I said "yeah, like your head, what aim mod" then he got *ed off! I was laughing to myself so hard. Even though he then beat my team twice, I have the last laugh, aim mod, whatever, try to dodge, it helps! p.s. I think he is a good player (since he rank higher than me), but just had a really sad moment... rank has very little to do with being a good player, since the only thing u have to do for getting a good rank is to play 24/7 and u will be top 10 in notime. look up the guy and see his stats instead kills/death ratio and buildings destroyed could be a good pointer instead.
