Yes, I am the crazy guy who jumps out the window with either a grenade launcher or a flamer and starts shooting at the 15+ tanks surrounding the last remaining building on our team.

Is it effective?

Depends on how many times I'm able to jump out the window without eating a rocket or a tank shell...

Does it save the building?

Half the time

Is it fun?

HELL YES!!!!1!!!!!!

What's the best part?

Flamers and Grenediers are FREE! ^^

This should be in tactics and strategies, but you are god damn late on tactics in Renegade, also suiciding is not tactic.

No, this guy actually has a point tho. When your base is being raped, most public players just hide in buildings or stay near a PT to just keep refilling instead of trying to do real damage to their attackers even if it means dying many many times (and ruining their KD ratio).....

hehe these players are always fun to hs/bs as they jump out of windows or run at you, and then all chat something along the lines of "wtf he has tank hax, he shoot me nader in the face, banz" makes the game fun and good topic, glad someone took the time out to comment on their awesome rene-tactic!

not hitting anything at all? you dont know me man, I hit EVERYTHING! XP (including the random buggy mixed in with the tanks)

Suiciding out of boredom's a tactic?

What K/D ratio? All i got is a death count XP

If you mean a VD/D (vehicle destruction to death) ratio, then that would be about 1/8 or 1/15 XP

Ohohoh... no it hasnt... evil grin
