Why must they ruin all of our fun!!! It would have been awesome to have a 50 page 3000 post topic. Why did they destroy it?? Was there any particular reason??

Hey! Chear up, at least they let us post past 500! They could have stopped it before then! If someone didn't say at least 500, Dev or who ever would more then likely closed it sooner! Give them a break, it was doomed. They let us have our fun a little past the suggested 500, don't complain.

The post started as a few honest tips to her strategies on how she plays the game, not as part of the team however, yet still a valid strategy. In turn, other members flamed her because she didn't work as part of a team. She was trying to be helpful and explain why she is such a good player (meaning high scoring), not a team player.

I still have to get you for that one game [June 07, 2002, 21:55: Message edited by: Kirovy1234]

... wow... This topic of a lost topic won't die. Yes the topic was intresting, but it got closed, and to post a topic about it is to push Devs, and WW patsions about it. Can we let it go, let the past be the past, and move on for a brighter future, even if it looks grim, don't dwell on the past. Dwelling on the past is what makes a grim looking furure come true. Letting the past go allows for changes to make any future brighter, no matter how grim it looks. Let the C4Kitty post go, it is in the past, and dwelling on it puts a damper on your future. I know this because I used to suffered from depreation because I dwelled on the past. Now I let the past go, and I am happer for it. You should too. Let go of the C4Kitty post, you will only make your self sad thinking about it, in most cases. DROP IT! [June 10, 2002, 13:40: Message edited by: IModx1]
