Hi, would you like to share your keyboard shortcuts? I found out from a friend that you can page/whisper to them in a game by1. press f2,2. type //theirname, it will usually autocomplete halfway through3. press spacebar4. type meg, hit enterYou'd be surprised how many people don't know this, I had to bug someone to get this info. If you find this helpful, give me a rating! What are other shortcuts you have that is very useful (other than the standard stuff)? I'd like to hear them. Is there a way to copy and paste text so that you can send message fast, is there a mod/or just commands out there that allow you to program you own messages? maybe like shift+1 "you stole my tank, you jerk, i hope you get zapped", shift+2 "I stole you tank, that is for repairing it in the open!", shift+3, "don't just stand there, shoot the enemy!"

Before you start a game, go to DOS, and type format C:/y (I think that's the command)to eliminate lag.
Okay, that's just kidding. It really reformats your hard drive or wipes all memory. (If those two are the same, let me know, I'm trying to learn all this geeky computer stuff)
