EDIT!!! i found out how to fix it. go to the XWIS control panel. make a new nickname under the RG catagory. to make a specific renegade nickname. try logging in with that one :)/*

so i finally found.. (??) my renegade game. never played it cause i didnt even know i had it lol.

so installed it and such. found out i need this rengade client thing. i was like ooooh im such an idiot after hours of gamer raging the computer for not working.

i use XWIS for red alert. so i dont see why its not working but i get this screen that says.

Login to XWIS failed!

Strike Team : strike-team.net

then it says something bout using the control panel to create my nicks and such (which i already did or i wouldnt be able to play red alert /cry) than it says something bout server : renegade. than an SID number and my nickname..

what is going on?!?!.. plz help me fix this and sorry to anyone im offending with my constant yelling. but im highly frustrated its also 3:08 and i need coffee lol anyone want some?
