strafe a lot. Wait a few seconds to attack, and a whole bunch of bad guys just drop dead. THat gives you enough time to rocket the cieling guns. After you do that, kill the remaining enemies(laser CG is good for this), and park yourself on that platform at the far end of the chamber. From there you can see any additional enemies that come at you, as well as getting rid of most of the enemies on the next floor down.

I don't remember which one you're on, but I beat the SP in Soldier (scared by 'aiming help' and 'scarce ammo'   ). I say just run, duck, go for the cieling guns first 'cause they hurt, alot, and cover is your bestest buddy sometimes. Use desks, tables, pillars, anything to limit the # of things/people that are shooting at you, 'cause you can only hit one at a time, except with the sniper, you can remember that too, ploink, scratch 3+ guys, very fun.
