Who plays it, who has it?

If so, add my Steam ID;- WNxHypnos

i have it but its quite possibly the dumbest game i've ever played. 9 out of 10 people use some kind of trainer / aimbot.

lol no. it's just years old, if you play in ESL, there's no cheats etc.

As for you other two, add me on steam and we can play some shiz.

The game is actually pretty bad for cheaters but depends which server you play on.

Depends on how well moderated the server is.

grant89uk wrote on Sun, 30 January 2011 20:42 Depends on how well moderated the server is. Depends tbh, I've played on servers wich are essentially governed by the players (!votekick, !voteban) and still, cheaters aren't an issue at all. The thing with css is that cheaters are extremely blatant and can be easily picked out thanks to the spectate system. As long as you're playing on a VAC sv_pure 2 server, you can go months without seeing a cheater.

Haha, you've never heard of chams I take it ? Watch anyone in spectate ... I've played 30 dif servers and 95% of people use them. My favorite is getting killed in the spawn of Dust 2 because apparently kids just know where to shoot through walls ...

People still play this shit? I would suggest TF2, but Valve totally assed that last year. Crysis 2 MP is looking fun!

lol i never said cheats didn't exist, it's just that as long as you don't play on a 24/7 dust2 instaspawn server you're likely not to run into too many cheaters. Also alot of people are really really good at counterstrike.

you're really bad

that said, it's a shit game and I never really got good at the whole aiming by listening to footsteps aspect borderlands is a cool game, just so that this post ends on a positive note
