hello

I just installed the free copy of GameSpy hoping it would have some servers hosting fan maps but I can't get GameSpy to show me anything but adds and I don't feel much like buying something that either no one is using or I just don't know how to use

You can only see the servers for the games you own.

Are you sure the case "only show servers in my country" isn't checked?

I haven't even seen that option before we go to much bother here are there any servers in gamespy using fan maps ?

cause jelly is all I need in the old maps

I just read in another forum that it wont work unless I subscribe can somone please tell me if it is worth subscribeing to ? how dose there list compait to the normall one in REN are there good servers not listed in REN are they playing any fan maps ?

GameSpy Arcade is now unsupported by IGN Corp. Do me a favour, open up GameSpy Arcade\Services on whatever drive you've installed it on, and see if a folder called 'ccrenegade' is there and reply here whether or not is is.

I did a search of the gamespy parent folder (and all sub folders) for "ccrenegade" found nothing

I looked around in there by hand to and find nothing im guessing this meens even if I where to buy gamespy it would not work with renegade ?

Probably. You could simply use WOL.

I am
was just hoping to find servers not listed in westwood online prefribly one with 100-150 people playing on fan maps at any given time

Download this and place it in the Services folder within GameSpy Arcade and see if it works.

As for the fan map server being that heavily populated, it's not going to happen. They're very empty now a days.

sorry for the slow reply anyway I just tried that near as I can tell it made no difference when I click servers I get this is it possible I'm doing something wrong GamSpy seems to have so many dif sections I wonder if I have just got it all wrong could you give me a snapshot of what you get ?

id like to see if there is anything there worth going after to beginwith doesn't have to be servers with 150 people even 5 people playing on fan maps would be something rate now when I join a fan map server I'm on it alone and the thing wont even start

Well you don't seem to have selected Renegade as the game you want to see the servers for... it's a long time since I last used GSA but from what I can tell you have selected some game called 'Arena' instead of Renegade.

What you've done is selected the GameSpy Arena section, which used to be used for competitive games. The thing you're looking for is the 'My Games' tab usually located on the left hand side.

Personally, I wouldn't recommend using GameSpy Arcade due to it being out-dated, unsupported and no longer used by the general game community.

im not seeing a MY GAMES buton on it but sounds like your saying there isn't anyone using this for renegade anyway ?

Pretty much, I recommend using Westwood Online or use a program like RenList or Renegade Resurrection.

thought I found Resurrection but when done installing it started up rengaurd which just did abnunch of complaining about a new HUD I installed never mind that I tried running REN and something new came up got some testing to do now think I found 2 servers playing fan maps but they are complaining about my copy of REN to when I started tinkering with HUDS I saved a clean copy of REN so ill just copy it again and install Resurrection in it should get me past any complaints
