It's the time of year again!

ReneGame is an annual event dedicated to celebrating the birthday of Command & Conquer: Renegade. The original game was released on February 26th, 2002, and will be turning 9 years old later this month.

To celebrate, Totem Arts and MP-Gaming will be hosting this year's ReneGame on Renegade X v.0.55 for Unreal Tournament 3. The game will take place on Saturday, February 26th, at 3:00pm Eastern Standard Time (GMT -5).

Required:

1. Unreal Tournament 3
2. "Renegade X" Version 0.55: Command & Conquer Renegade remade on the Unreal Engine 3.

For more information, visit the official Renegade X website.

As much as I like the idea of something like Renegade X, you don't honor Renegade by playing Renegade X on its birthday instead of the real Renegade. The game is not dead yet. Have fun though!

We did the last three events on the original Renegade, we'd like to change things up a bit. I think this time we'd like to do it on the remake we've busted our asses to make for four years now.

A big chunk of our fanbase doesn't have/play the original game, and events like these are ways to bring in new players. Don't be hatin'!

Not hatin' here, but it seems silly. Even if Renegade X is more accessible and is your long-worked-on project, you just don't celebrate Ren's "birthday" with a different game.

You can fit a tribute to both games in the same day -_-

Our's is at 3 pm EST.. have yours at 8PM or 10 AM

Its not like were saying come play counter strike on the 26th. RenX is renegade. Just a remake with a bunch of new stuff and new ways to play.

"HOLY!" shit bud, I get that you think you have a life and all but its not like you need to tell everybody in every fucking post you make. This is a game/spam forum so how about you post about the topic/spam, instead of what disease you and you're spray-tanned buddies are going to get saturday night.

K. Thx. and Bye.
