Go.

<http://www.humanmetrics.com/cgi-win/JTypes2.asp>

I'm ISTJ:

ISTJ Profile - <http://www.personalitypage.com/ISTJ.html>

ISTJ Career choices - http://www.personalitypage.com/html/ISTJ_car.html

I have the loyalty, logical and practical characteristics of a typical ISTJ but I don't really let rules define me as would a real square (I think I used to, but alcohol and drugs fixed that problem).

I wouldn't be surprised if you programmers out there are ISTJ as well.

EDIT: More info on MBTI for you skeptical hippos out there, http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Myers-Briggs_Type_Indicator

<http://www.assessmentbuzz.com/buzz/2009/1/26/mbti-is-not-a-pseudoscience-check-our-facts-nay-sayers.html>

Anyway this type of thing is usually pretty fun regardless of its validity.

Appreciate the link. I am just sort of speechless right now as how dead accurate it describes me in the profile.

I am INTP

Profile: <http://keirse.com/4temps/architect.asp>

Career choices: <http://www.humanmetrics.com/vocation/JCI.asp?EI=-89&SN=-25&TF=12&JP=-44>

Top career choices I had always considered are dead accurate too: Education, Natural Science, Law, and Librarian.

very expressed introvert

slightly expressed thinking personality moderately expressed judging personality

ISTJ Description

INTP:

You are:
moderately expressed introvert
moderately expressed intuitive personality distinctively expressed thinking personality slightly expressed perceiving personality

I don't know why I bother taking the time to fill out these tests, it's never 100% accurate, and I probably couldn't even give you a proper description myself of my personality; due to the complexity required in such an answer and not really giving a fuck.

ENTJ

Type Description: <http://keirseey.com/4temps/fieldmarshal.asp>
<http://typelogic.com/entj.html>

I thought this was pretty fitting to my personality and what I do as well

Quote:Hardly more than two percent of the total population, Fieldmarshals are bound to lead others, and from an early age they can be observed taking command of groups. In some cases, they simply find themselves in charge of groups, and are mystified as to how this happened. But the reason is that they have a strong natural urge to give structure and direction wherever they are - to harness people in the field and to direct them to achieve distant goals. They resemble Supervisors in their tendency to establish plans for a task, enterprise, or organization, but Fieldmarshals search more for policy and goals than for regulations and procedures.

Quote:ENTJs have a natural tendency to marshall and direct. This may be expressed with the charm and finesse of a world leader or with the insensitivity of a cult leader.

ENTP

slightly expressed extravert

slightly expressed intuitive personality

moderately expressed thinking personality

moderately expressed perceiving personality

It says my most typical career would be management in business or education. But also natural sciences which I enjoy learning alot about.

All in all its quite accurate seeing as I actually did Business and Management at college.

Intuitive 62%

Feeling 25%

Perceiving 67%

The percentages change, but the categorization is always the same.

Very, very similar to the answers grant got, apparently. I'm going to college for business as well, and do enjoy science very much. It is surprisingly accurate.

Mine was "OWN".

To sum it up, it pretty much says I'll take control of the world.

[I/E]NTP

I took the Myers-Briggs tests twice and the advanced ones too in high school.

Yes I fit in both categories and it is rare. Which makes me best fit as a programmer Which I am.

edit - I remember a long time ago I used to be an INTJ but mysteriously I became gregarious at some point. Probably when I got laid
