I was playing on a pacific server the other day{dont remember which one} but the gdi team was all havocs {12} the map was feild and when a tank rolled onto the feild it got shot by every unit and got iced pretty quick, infantry didnt last more than a second. it was a really amazing site to see. the next game they where all ravesaws and man was that crazy, each one of them shot at the buildings and they went down in no time, every time a tank popped out of the war fac it was gone in less than a few seconds, yet again a cool site to see{even tho i was losing}

When I see too many gdi havocs, I buy a stealth black hand, and go snipe hunting.

I think the best one when you are on Nod at City_flying is 5-6 stealth tanks. we took out 4 ot of 5 GDI buildings. Each building took about 5=6 seconds to kill. they all were like wtf how are they dieing so fast.
