Why does your ammo go from 3 to 4 so quickly and never have to reload your weapon? That in itself has to be cheating if not i would like to know how your ammo refills every single shot... Oh and i think i saw you were using Clearscope also o.O Nice way to show off that you could be a cheater o.O

- 1) It's called no reload servers.
- 2) It's not a completely clear scope, so shut the fuck up.
- 3) You're an idiot.

Overall, good video sir.

clearscope stopped being a cheat like 2 years ago. For the record though, that's not a complete clearscope, and i have been using the default scope ever since i started playing on my laptop anyway.

what happened 2 years ago to make clearscope a cheat or not?

The fact that more players use *cheat name removed*than not should make using clearscope a pointless argument..

I don't know about other servers, but at n00bstories we never considered clearscope a cheat. You don't even need to download anything to enable it.

it stopped being a cheat when almost everyone started using it, so servers just allowed it anyway.

I think you guys will be in for a surprise when many of the people you think cheat are able to still do just as good with scripts 4.0. Sure, some will get caught that won't be surprising, and others will get caught that are surprising to most, but I've seen so many dumb accusations and reasons to claim someone is cheating in my years that i simply treat them as an annoyance by now. Nothing more.

shut up cheater

yeah, *cheat name removed*basically has made it to where everyone will accuse everyone. people used to be much better at sniping and infantry than they are now..

and shut up aircraftkiller cheater!!11 killing aircrafts in one shoot

Well, you're not the real c4smoke. But to clear this up, I've never played c4smoke in a 1v1. In fact, I asked him for a 1v1 while he came back some months ago and he dodged me. I only did it for the lol's, but still dodged.
