It's Official guys and girls, Tiberium Crystal War is branching out to new mediums and has begun development on UDK version. Think of this as a Christmas present to all C&C fans!

Tiberium Crystal War is a FPS multiplayer shooter that will be based on the events from Electronic Arts 'Command And Conquer 3' game.

Experience first hand, the third Tiberium war and it's futuristic weapons, vehicles and apocalyptic, tiberium infested world of 2047 on Unreal Engine.

We are working really hard behind the scenes, to produce something that all C&C fans will enjoy! So please stay tuned as we have some more updates coming in the new year!

Are you guys gonna base your stand-alone game on Renegade-X, i.e. use their code and maybe assets?

Well it's too early to say anything about that but.. we do have a programmer that is in the process of joining the team

We also have some new talented artists that will completely recreate units, structures, etc. We are not using anything EA produced, like in our W3D version. All UDK assets will be custom made.

Cloned shit? what the hell?

your doing spam on my mod and now here? wow.. you should be very retarded with Null IQ, probably you use 100 Dictionaries to can say a shit.. really, your just boring, nobody reads your comments.

about spam on my mod from you, i will take care of it.

I'm thinking how you got permission to post this in Renegade Community news, we really don't care about this.

and now you will cry to zunnie to remove my comment? i really want to see freedom of speech here.
