Eyo. Just wondering where the server Atomix Gaming went?

Stopped playing Renegade for awhile due to job related situations in a periode and when came back i did Not see it in server list til this date.

This concerns me as it was my Favourite server to play in in the full version of the game, I enjoyed it alot i must say and I miss it tbh. More of the people I recognize from Renegade gaming throughup the years were found there than other servers I hopped into.

Anyways, Prolly been a post about this somewhere in forum awhile ago I guess since it seemed like many others also enjoyed this server, just someone with knowledge about this tell me if/when it is getting up again or if it is lost and gone forever.

Thanks in advance and happy new years^^

Also, almost forgot; and what happend to their website? (atomix-gaming.net) I guess its connected to the server downtime.

I did see a "atomix" server up yesterday or so when i browsed through the servers in GSA, but it was empty and surely not the same Atomix server i had marked as favourite long time ago that always used to have alot of peeps in it =|

Cheers and +respect to the host of this server whoever you are, had alot of fun there, dont play much Renegade anymore but would like to find you and give you my personal thanks for making the time i had there possible. Im prolly just very high writing this but I really miss the server^^

Hello buddy.

Atomix went through some changes, Caveman is now the owner, not Xpert.

You can find Atomix on WOL and GSA:

For direct connect here's the IP: 95.211.9.157:8051
Server name: ! Atomix :: 4.0 AOW
Website: www.atomix-gaming.co.uk (down for maintenance)
IRC: irc.atomix-gaming.co.uk (also down for maintenance)

Also since, you've been away Tiberium Technologies has created Scripts 4.0 (which stop all known cheats/fix a tonne of stuff)

You can download Scripts 4.0 from here: <http://www.tiberiantechologies.org/downloads>

Some servers such as st0rm enforce scripts 4.0, so you'll need to use it if playing on some servers.

Happy new year.

Xpert put it down, and moved the scripts from Atomix (vet system and such) to st0rm. The Atomix players are scattered around. Some play at Jelly, and quite a few play at st0rm, basically because the Vet system that was on Atomix is now there.

Someone took a huge steaming dump on it, thats all, might as well play Jelly, its probably the best one at the moment.

No it's not the same one. Unless you wanna play in a wannabe version of it.

Cheers. If you miss that style of play, go play in St0rm AOW - <http://www.st0rm.net>
It's the closest thing to it.

Hands down, the coolest thing that Atomix-Gaming had was the flying crate... Never had so much fun in my life when I got that crate...
