This is an open 1v1 challenge to anybody, including the very small number of people I have declined to play - hell, even former cheaters (cos 4.0). Just so long as it's a clanwar; i.e. you need a warrior account on the clanwars.cc renegade league and it needs to be in a clan, we play under clanwars.cc rules, and the game gets reported.

If anyone wishes to accept, contact me in-game or on forums.

(As an incentive, the more of these I win, the more points I and my clan TC will be worth when you beat us.)

just operate under the assumption that it's a joke you don't happen to be in on, and you'll be fine.
