I've downloaded, patched, and installed the cores successfully, but when I try to connect online, all it says is requesting server list, until the process is timed out. I've reinstalled renegade many times, and tried again but to no avail. I'm trying to play from the first decade. Please help!

Use this program instead of XWIS:

Open up the program, configure your GSA name and stuff and then open the GSA tab and join what ever server you like.

hello there !, um i have installed C6C Renegade and thought to play online again (like in old good time) but i dont see a server i installed all updates and RenGuard Core Patches but nothing.

i see in RenGuard Client on some n00bstories servers some players playing online !

i checked on n00bstories.com and see some actuall stats from some servers.

but i cant join a server because i dont see a server need help !

RenGuard is obsolete. Install the 4.0 update instead.
