Ok, so it's really, really mean and gets you called lots of nasty things, but when someone REALLY gets on your nerves, what do you do to them? alt+f4 has always been a classic. There's also telling a real idiot his alternate raveslaw will heal in tiberium... And, when the whole team is full of n00bs, there's always the chance to buy a chopper and leave them at the top of the map... C'mon, what was the meanest thing you ever did to someone? Show your darker side!

It was on city flying, small game so there weren't many chances for headshots (i am pure sniper) so i had to take all chances. I was in that hole in the wall near the tiberium. I was happily sniping what targets there were until a fellow sniper joined me! He nabbed some of my kills so i decided to go off duty and just completely annoy him! I kept running infront of him back and forth making it impossible for him to snipe... and he couldn't go anywhere near the edge lol, not if he wanted to be pushed off anyway!

My fav thing to do is to take those n00bs for some skydiving lessons!lol its so funny watching those n00bs jump out and go splat on the pavement....then just for kicks you can drop the trans heli onto someones tank so they can't get in and it blows up in their faces. AND O YA...can't forget this one...jazzin up the house with a little nuke beacon solo!

I like getting in FF on games with a n00b host on your team on a flying map. Buy a transport helicopter slap timed c4 on it and tell the host to get in the vehicle. Fly to the top of the map boom splat. I got kicked for that one time.

yup. Always fun for those people who think they're above the instructions. Then there's slapping c4's on ignorant snipers' faces...

Start hitting on the n00b in the chat box and with pm's, then when it begins to aggravate them, run up to the top of a skyscraper in City flying and threaten to jump if they won't chat with you however, if torturing an a-hole makes me a jackass, it's worth it to be a jackass!
