With as much dignity as he could muster, Wallywood gathered up the sad remains of his shattered Reborn. Later that night, alone in the backyard, he buried it next to the garage. Now I could never be sure, but I thought that I heard the sound of "Taps" being played. Gently.

If anyone is watching the "BHP" forums, there's quite a bit of drama stirring up about their Minecraft server and how this Whitetrashywood kid is running it into the ground. Now, I know all you Renegade guys don't care about "BHP" but I do know you like a good laugh. Go read, if you're bored enough.

<https://www.bluehellproductions.com/forum/index.php?showtopic=25613&pid=498530&st=0&#entry498530>

And lol

Should caption that... "Only if Whitetrashywood is running it. Bring back Renardin!"

The snipers are a useless character in that game. They don't snipe vehicles, as it should be.
APB sucks, it's full of little dictators like Wally there. I do find their bashing of Renegade pretty comical, since they use it's engine.

Why do people have so much against snipers? Because in Renegade they were overpowered (in the hands of a few, you could still rape snipers with other characters..) doesn't mean they have to take them out of other games. Balance them out a bit more.

Whenever I heard that Reborn wasn't putting in snipers, I immediately lost all interest in the game. I can't begin to understand why you'd want to take snipers out. Oh well, it's not like it's going to get released anyway.

You know as well as I do that by linking here from there, this is what will happen:

I'll be called an idiot. Oh, no!

Whitetrashywood will continue to deny that he has socialization issues on the Internet.

Having said that, Whitetrashywood will then say "BUT LOL U R TEH TROL" - which ignores the fact that I don't come here to make friends, nor do I care about what washed up money fighters think about me.

Also, you'll probably take heat for having posted here with what you said. You're painting a target on your back. Now they'll see you as the guy who wants to prevent their good-old-internet-boy network from continuing to harass people unopposed.

/Also, tell that Raapnaap guy to message me here or on Facebook or something

"Also, you'll probably take heat for having posted here with what you said." You were so right in that regard.

If only you had never made this topic, if only I had never replied with Walldo being a dictator, if only I sucked cock like that garrus queer.

Still...they have bitched, whined, moaned, and made fun of Renegade(Renegayd) for years.

Side note: The reason for Reborn dying in MP years ago was not due to it being non-vehicle. It was the APB retards who were moderators at the time. They would abuse the hell out of people, and they tried to run it the same way APB was run.

Get your own damn engine you hypocrites.

They tried moving to UDK - I've been told the result wasn't very spectacular. I imagine it's easier to edit a game engine that's got all you need built into it versus one where you have to put in some actual programming work to get it doing what you want.

Very true, although if you want advanced things, that might be easier to do on an engine like Unity or the UDK.

I do not think this is applicable to Reborn though (imo).

Actually not at all. I've had a smile on my face ever since I got home and heard all my fans gathered to one topic to pay their respects. To be honest, I've been rather happy as of late. Got a lot of awesome things going on. Life is starting to look up a bit. It would take a pretty sad person to get mad about the interwebz. Also I think it's painfully funny that I have my very own thread here on these forums when I've only made like 9 or 10 posts in total, honestly I think that's pretty cool.

RenAlert isn't "dead", just because it will be moved to a new engine doesn't make it dead, it's still the same mod, the same team, etc.

I men't the W3D version.

Reborn isn't dead btw...

And I meant the mod itself.

No it's not dead, yet, it's just in a catatonic state... You can see some progress once in a while but it isn't really going anywhere.

It's been slightly less then a year since the last battle between BHP and Aircraft Killer.

Here is the argument:

<https://www.bluehellproductions.com/forum/index.php?showtopic=24427&st=0>

What started as a thread to simply post some nice unused things from the Old Days of APB, turned into Aircraft Killer posting some nice pictures of a refinery. The people said I WANT THAT IN, the devs said no. Aircraft Killer's posts have been censored, but you can still see them in the quotes.
