Usually if a page hasn't loaded within the first 15 seconds, I refresh, you actually waited for the 96 seconds wut.

Makes me laugh every time.

The lag has barely been noticeable tbh.

I know I've certainly experienced the same lag, I can load a RF page, wait like ten seconds then click Jelly and it loads in a second or so and RenForums still won't have loaded (but it isn't always that slow, it seems quite random).

I'm sure it depends how much load is on the server, tbh its good enough, it's not like your updating your stocks or something lol.
