RenCorner.net - Funwar

It's on Wol & Gsa

a0000001m is the hostname on WOL

Pass is Fwarz

Feel free to use it whenever, unless someone's in the server in a funwar, wait for them to leave the server.

And to my knowledge, it's the only fw/cw server out of all renegade.

The server is pretty much going to be up and running 24/7. I installed the whole !ready / match reset plugin, and kept the settings to be as competitive as possible. If you have suggestions for it drop them here or come thru to our website (www.rencorner.net) and put em there.

is it 4.0 with normal cw settings?

Pointsfix? Infinite ammo?

if it is, we may use it in the future.

Right now it's standard 4.0 maps with 4.0 forced, weapon crates are still there but there are old credit crates.. Infinite ammo is also a plugin that we've enabled.

LokiDog was the one to set it up and he's tried his best to make it as competitive as possible, if people want to change settings and maps we can discuss it.

I'm barely on MSN now a days, Danny.

Maybe try the Jelly IRC to get a hold of me, or even a PM on here if you're looking for a game or two.

I'm busy the next month or so therefore I won't be about, but I'm pretty sure I'll be using the RenCorner server at some point.

Never know, we might even be able to regenerate the Lobby Wars that Spooky, Whiskey and I were setting up a while back, I'll bang them both a PM and see if they're interested.

you need to set manual teaming on and turn team remix off also, give a few peoples nicks mod status to gameover etc, and maybe consider changing your rotation a bit, city fly , glacier, under and hourglass grouped together is a bit too much and turn donate off.....

and no gameover

thank you for the effort though i forgot to say, at least we did have a server we could play in

I'll disable donating, that's just one more thing I haven't thought of.

The only people with mod status is me and Loki, but if anyone comes to www.RenCorner.net and shows up saying they're a competitive Renegade player and want to play in it, will get mod status.

I actually thought he was cheating at first when he came around my server. He had 4.0 and everything and he was able to like 4-5 shoot people down with the pistol consistently.. The server "sshot" function also didn't work on him for some reason (due to him having a weird, possibly cracked Windows OS.)

But he let me TV into his PC and check through literally every single thing he had there as soon as I requested it without giving himself any time to try to hide/delete shit. He definitely passes through my checks, however strict they may be o_0

I've learned to look past the bad decisions of people that have made in the past. If we decided to ban everyone and not give any 2nd chances to past cheaters we would have a lot less people around.

- Manual teaming needs to be enabled
- team remix off
- donate off
- and pls give someone the ability to gameover NOW

you have hourglass, under, and field all together in the rotation thats a recipe for disaster

Well like I said if people were to come on the IRC server and register with NS i'll give people the ability to use the commands... If I add you as a mod ingame you would have to be in IRC to verify yourself anyways..

Edit: Changes made - Enabled manual team changes

Disabled remix teams
Disabled donate

Also, I don't know what you guys want in terms of having custom maps and what not. All the stock (4.0) maps are there and if you have mod you can just set the next map in the rotation and stuff. But if you want anything beyond stock let me know and i'll add them in.

Let me know what else needs changing. I think LokiDog told me I need to disable weapon spawning, if enough people want it gone i'll do that as well.

It should be gone by default for cws/fws.

So unfortunately, he's right it does need to be gone.
