So this is something I've never seen before. It happens about a dozen times a day. Your character just seems to lose all it's weapons. It's random, but it has happened while I've fought someone and it's really only a nuisance when that's the case. Is this new? Will it be fixed?

Its a weird bug i noticed too yes, empty hands are selected randomly while playing, quite annoying.

You can switch back to a weapon by pressing a number or the mousewheel though. They dont REALLY disappear.

You are aware that there is a button to switch to no weapon? It's not set by default, but can be set with keycfg afaik.

Yes I am EWD. My point was that I've never seen this before. If it's a bug, will it be getting fixed?

It doesn't happen on Jelly's Marathon server, which is running RC1 though when they were using Beta 5 they also didn't experience it.

I have had this quite a bit, actually thought it was me doing something.

Anyone checked that keys.cfg hasn't accidentally been modified, seems to happen when I use free aim.

I use whatever keys come with 4.0 RC1 (I got a completely stock client) and free aim a lot.

Hasn't happened to me on any beta5 or RC1 server.

Does it happen on multiple servers? It could be something on the particular server you play on. Otherwise is it reproducible?

Had it on multiple servers, reproducing it may be difficult, just completely random. Kinda like trying to recreate blue hell use to be.
