Hey everyone its N1warhead here, it's been awhile sense I been on here or have played renegade (been in the military still am, but I am finally having free time to get back into renegade and so on.

But I have made a website strictly for modding of C&C games called www.cncmodders.com

I'm not sure if this is allowed here or not, please don't get mad at me, it's been awhile LOL.

Please if anyone wants to check out the website. Have some tutorials on there, some downloads, and hoping to add on to another strong C&C Community.

Thanks, and I'm back and glad to be back!

Thanks guys =).

I hope it works out, I might still make a plastic revolution mod, might now be as highly anticipated as it was before. But there would at least be a Multiplayer lol..... might make it for RA2 or something, idk yet. I still love rene and its still my all time fav C&C Game. If anyone would be interested in helpin me do it for ren, would be nice. But im more focused on this website now, might dedicate the mod for it as well.

Thats a pretty good website man!
