Ok, this is really funny. On hourglass if you are GDI, Go up onto the hill on the right side a few steps left and backward. Then the ob will try to shoot you, but it doesn't kill you or hurt you at all if you stand at the perfect spot!!!It's so funny, cuz then you can have an apc rush while it's trying to murder you .

I reported someone that did that on the DOM servers. The obelisk is suppose to have 100\% accuracy when it fires.

P.S. Great MTV production, u have a full length? [February 05, 2003, 19:39: Message edited by: dq001]
