Discuss

EDIT: Seeing as this thread is pretty popular, I'll give some extra explanation.

I made that topic immediately after I got a popup telling im banned for cheating at the end of the game after playing a DM map on their server. Never once did they ever mention they suspected me of cheating, but I did know that every time I played they were making remote SS of me. I assumed this was to check if I had any illegal skins, but it started to get excessive after 10-11 of them were made within about 20 minutes on an Islands game. I noticed that my ping was going up and I suspected someone making remote screenshots of me, so I browsed to the public web page where they kept the remote SS they make of players (I told zunnie a while ago that this webpage was public but he said he didn't mind.)

So I'm playing the DM map where I got banned on at the end. I'm playing pretty mediocre and I don't even notice anyone accusing me of cheating. I wasn't checking chat though as the server was pretty filled with players on this small action filled map (it was a DM map based on the tutorial level). Usually on Jelly I get PMs telling me to stop cheating and other nastiness, plus teamhampering sometimes too.

As you can read from the linked thread they explicitly state they have no proof of me cheating. Nor did they ever ask me to record myself playing on their server. The fact they immediately close the ban thread is a passive admission they don't have any ground to stand on. After I made this renforums thread (the one you're reading now) with my trademark politeness it immediately gets trolled by MPF members with "lol umad" style responses (more, more, and even more). My pleas to prove my innocence by recording myself or any other way to resolve this get completely ignored.

And I'm a well-known and very active renegade player and community member who not only has been:

1. actively beta testing scripts 4.0 since May 2011,
2. I've personally brought about about 50 cheaters to justice or helped therein in the Jelly community.
3. I've also published the most server plugins in the community. Such as one which makes refills cost money, which is a plugin that MPF themselves run.

I was also running Scripts 4.0/TT Patch which has anti-cheat integrated, I've been running it non-stop for 2 years now (since when I was added as private beta tester for the software).

EDIT2: Here's some videos of me playing:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CfrE8yqazDw> (glacier fly sniping)

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1Dr-xB4dsf4> (canyon sniping)

http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=0A0i\_eklcN0 (walls fly sniping)

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zOHg9SmeLaQ> (islands sniping really laggy)

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ClrEjZ3ljkY> (walls fly basic infantry compilation)

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=XN87Ohdl9Ao> (complex snipe, laggy)

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=uKq7wEyb8Zg> (deathmatch 1vs1 showcase)

One of their admins, MDK@ENGLAND (who apparently is banned at this forums), wrote a few comments on a few of my YouTube videos. He later removed them.

In the last comment he states they made Fraps recordings of me playing, yet they didn't show any of the recordings to me and they don't want to share them either.

I might start playing at MPF more since iran is banned there!

Oh happy days!

Also on a serious note iran strikes me as a person who would be 10x more incredibly bored at 10 year old game if he did cheat. He might be an annoying troll at times but I sense some honor in the little skill he has

Maybe because banning players because theyre extremely good isn't considered normal by most in the community?

I run anti-cheat and still get banned for cheating when I'm not even playing seriously WTF. What's the point in me running anti-cheat if I STILL get banned because I outplay everyone on a server without putting effort into it?

There's NO proof given whatsoever and everyone knows I'm a super legit player. The only server I can play on without this bullshit is on Jelly.

read the quote in Iran's signature - i still stand behind that Iran is more likely to abuse a coding glitch than he is using an actual cheat

it's ok because he apologized to you if you're not actually cheating i suppose you could fraps yourself playing and show it to them in an attempt to clear your good name!

I dont even have to read to say he must be really butthurt now

Fact is, he knows he cant be caught by abusing his Triggerbot, this is a great Day for MPF and for all other RenPlayers left in this Game, cuz we have 1 cheating Prick less in our Server

On a side Note : i lol'ed when i read he said : IM RUNNING 4.0... As if that makes a diff. haha

Now u can stay @ ur fav. Serv and troll the Players there till they finally ban you over at Jelly also if u dont change

Quote:No, because we suspect severely that you are using cheats.

The thing is; you are either just extremely good or you are using something, and we can't prove anything but you can also not prove you don't.

So to safeguard the players on the server i suppose a ban is nessecary.

There is nothing left to say here, i am sorry if you REALLY don't cheat.

DJ says he's banned for triggerbot - from the looks of it, zunnie has no idea what cheat Iran's using (if he's actually using one) not sure why DJ would be upset at other people cheating; he's been seen using cheats (in a community war, nonetheless) and caught glitch abusing on multiple servers (even has fraps of himself doing it), so i don't quite understand on top of that, he's still not any good at the game enjoy your Iran-free server

whats the point in frapsing when its clear im banned for completely destroying their mods ingame?

The fact they don't even have fishy "proof" or can tell me what I did that is so unbelievable says enough. I could go on and fraps something and they still will have a bullshit excuse to keep me banned.

First off you've never beaten me in TMX .. you got squashed on .. I sent you those PMs as an obvious joke .. anyone without down syndrome could have figured it out considering it was like !page Iran You're so pro!11!! LOL but i guess that means I'm angry and got dominated. Second I saw YKZ flip a 180 and shoot an SBH directly in the face .. cheating is quite obvious these days LOL. But okay bud, doesn't mean I didn't still squash that YKZ faggot 100x before that. Let's post all logs though from every server, I better put you on highlight so I can put everything you say in here!! Kinda creepy.

Keep being terrible and thinking you're good at renegade .. the only thing you have to live for obviously.

You come here to make drama over being banned at MPF when I'm surprised they ever let you play there in the first place. You are a pathetic excuse for a human being. You "troll" everyone and are not funny at all; then I call you a virgin one time and you get angry and IRC ignore me. I bet you furiously beat your head against your wall when MPF banned you cause you just got banned from half of all that is left in renegade. Get banned from Jelly and you might as well toss your monitor in the bathtub with you.

Poor Iran someday he will have something in life to look forward to other than renegade, he might even get laid if he plays his cards right and saves enough for a paper bag AND a hooker. It's okay buddy if you keep trying some day after the game is dead at least one person might think you're good at renegade. It only took you 12 years playing as Maikel and being the bottom of the leaderboard every round to get to somewhat mediocre status! Keep going bro!

you act like he's terrible or something his vehicle skill is well above average the thing that gets him in trouble is his sniping, and it's not because he's cheating you're never going to see a frags ownage video from Iran of him sniping though

We don't ban people who are really good at this game.
You have been watched oh so many times through spectator mode, screenshots have been taken to discover what you are using, and nothing showed up.
Thing is we don't have the anti-cheat features enabled on the NewMaps 4.0 server so cheating is possible up to a certain point apart from what is blocked by 4.0 on the client.

I'm not going into detail to what is possible and what is not.

Many of our moderators and admins have been thinking you are using some sort of cheat, hack or unfair advantage in game.

We have waited months before deciding to ban you for potentially cheating because we DID NOT WANT to ban you without proof of any sort.

You are just freaking amazing at this game OR you (ab)use something or are extremely lucky at times to get so many kills and no deaths it's not even funny anymore.

Again, i did not "WANT" to ban you for being "Good", it is because most of us believe you are hacking and getting away with it.

That game on DOM_Tutorial with the two cranes in domination style (the game after which i banned you) was imho nearly impossible;

You killed everyone like it was nothing second after second, where everyone else killed two or three guys and then died once you kept going on and on without dieing.

I'm not saying you should have died, but the gameplay was just so hectic on that map that it was nearly impossible to not die sometimes lol.

Yet you rarely died and kept owning everyone over and over until i had enough of it and you really convinced me you were using something.

I'm sorry if you do really not cheat and this ban is unjustified, you are the first we banned for cheating WITHOUT any actual proof.

Also note that we do not have to provide proof for any ban we issue; We can ban anyone we want for whatever reason we think deems that nessecary, we just choose to -in most cases- provide proof or reasoning.

The proof lacks here but the reasoning is simple: We believe you are using something; Therefor you are banned from the server. Nothing more nothing less.

The only way you can convince me you are legit is this: I would have to sit next to you on your pc playing renegade on our server and STILL killing people left and right like it's nothing, only then i will be absolutely sure you don't cheat and i will lift the ban.

But this will never happen. Sorry.

No, the reason you were banned is because you use(d) advantage skins which are not allowed on our server.

Your ban is also temporarily and i will lift it if you decide to remove your advantage skins.

Like? You guys could at least cover your ass and not ban people for being extremely good at a game, really.

Cause it honestly looks really pathetic and doesn't really make people feel good about your server, as already shown in this thread.

I really do not see what is pathetic, but ok.. if you think so. The only people that don't "feel" good about our server are majority of the members of this forum/other communities. If you don't like MPF, go enjoy another server, we are not stopping you..

You really don't see what's pathetic about banning players for being extremely good? Are you for real? Wow..

[20:15:34] <&NewMapsBot> Host: (zunnie@IRC): why are you using a smurnick ?

[20:15:39] <&NewMapsBot> Kleenex: me

[20:15:42] <&NewMapsBot> Host: (zunnie@IRC): yes

[20:15:45] <&NewMapsBot> Kleenex: why not

[20:16:25] <&NewMapsBot> Host: (zunnie@IRC): I thought you did not like the server or MPF? THEN why do you play here?

[20:16:32] <&NewMapsBot> Kleenex: because look at my kills

[20:16:35] <&NewMapsBot> Kleenex: its too easy here LOL

[20:17:31] <&NewMapsBot> Host: (zunnie@IRC): 37 to 12 something is not even close to what iran had if thats what youre after

[20:18:15] <&NewMapsBot> Host: (zunnie@IRC): are you trying to get yourself banned so you can rage-post it on rengayforums? lol

[20:18:24] <&NewMapsBot> Kleenex: yes thats exactly what im doing!

[20:18:50] <~zunnie> !mpfban Kleenex Okay then go ahead. Cya.

[20:18:51] <&NewMapsBot> [mpfban] banned Kleenex for Okay then go ahead. Cya.!

Do not bother to post a topic about getting unbanned, it's not going to happen.

Have a nice day!

Can I at least prove that I'm as good as you think? It wouldn't have been hard for me to start frapsing or anything.

I don't think I was playing that well that game in any way, I got lucky with the Ramjet spawns. On the maps before I wasn't playing that well either.

As you said it was on that DM map and I was using non-instant hit guns like LCG too. If you're not dead set on banning me we could play the same map with me running FRAPS or something that doesn't affect my playing abilities and I could show you how I'm manually using free aim.

Because I honestly don't know what to do to prove otherwise, I could petition players or something but then it's still word against word. You could ask mods who also played on st0rm the last few months they were open and I was playing just as good then.

tristt (ehh), i0ncl0ud, gohax, xpert and some other people also play below my level but your moderator team would also think they're extremely good. if that tristt fatso would actually play a few times on MPF.

So yeah if you wanna set up a few games with me frapsing or something that doesn't cause my PC to lag too badly, so i can prove my innocence. You know where to find me. I also knew you guys were making remote SS of me about every time I've played on the server for more than 30 minutes, nor did I break any rules or game or even use chat other than for saying hello, asking for donations politely or to use chat commands and occasionally use radio commands.

DJ got called out on glitch abusing on Jelly, which made him furious he also had fraps of him doing that glitch on Jelly, which is what i don't understand (he still denied doing it even though he himself had the proof readily available)

he also had a 10-year old anime girl almost fully nude in his signature on the Jelly forums, which he refused to change even after everyone told him it was fucked up he spent most of his time on the Jelly forums (and a bit on IRC) trying to start arguments with people over nothing, and eventually asked to have his forum account deleted after the hostility he received

he doesn't socialize the way a normal person would; these were regular DJ topics

It has nothing to do with serv vs. serv. I dont have a beef with Jelly or a Problem, never had afaik. Its just a fact that the concentration of Trolls & tards is the highest there, if we break it down to the number of players still playing. The majority of the Players dont even care bout whats going on in this forums here, its just the same bunch of ppl as usual. And i do agree, as far as i remember the Players were ok when i played.

To all who got banned:

I don't get it at all...you said you don't really care about being banned at MPF but with your posts you prove it wrong... not too much people like MPF servers here, so why don't you just play on a different server where all of you are on the same level? So the problems will go for good.

P.S Iran that'd be really helpful if we could find a way to see how do you kill people like that

As for this little fuck, who gets so mad enough to ban someone for people liking his skins and maps more then his, I don't care about mpf nor do I care about you, I just went to mpf to show off my work not to become someone there. And I am fine at RenCorner where I am admin just like you are at mpf, but don't worry I wont ban someone for having better huds, skins, and shit.

VuLTiMa wrote on Mon, 20 May 2013 22:31 Why would I want to get unbanned LOL, its a server full of retards(retarded moderators, players actually seemed nice), played for what 15-20 mins? Racked up 40 kills, sure, what makes it more retarded is you retards who come out of hiding to bombard me.

You couldn't sense the sarcasm in that?

You were clearly baiting this to happen, ofc I was going to post here after that, how would I possibly pass up this opportunity to show whats left of the renegade community how retarded you are.

To me all this sounds more like children crying and shouting at each other, seriously.

I could play against you on that DM map on a similar server (I get a lot less lag on MPF than on Jelly for example), with me running FRAPS and using free aim. I did some testing yesterday and I was able to record at 60 FPS with fraps on a co-op server, with only a slight effect on my playing abilities.

So yeah I'm kinda waiting on that, maybe you guys could put that DM map we last played on your test server when it isn't being used and we can play a few games. Then I can put a video of that on YouTube.

While I don't really like Iran, I can't see any legitimate reason for him being banned.

As has previously been stated, trigger bot is blocked with the latest version of 4.0. If your running 4.0 server-side and he's running it client-side. There is NO way in which he can cheat.

Granted he's an annoying prat, but he shouldn't really be banned for "suspected" cheating.

As for Vultima, he too is very outspoken.. but if you don't like what he's saying about your server you should just give him a permanent mute in your server and/or ban him on your forums. until he behaves. There's not that many players left on Renegade...servers need to co-operate and allow players to play there peacefully.

I like you Zunnie, but I feel you've made a mistake in judgement here mate.

Your server is active and for good reason, you have a good setup going, if your going to break one of the basic rules of being fair on your server such as banning without evidence, then the server's reputation isn't going to be as good. Players are going to be worried about being banned, unless your just making a example out of Iran? I know he's caused a lot of problems and your well within your rights to ban whoever you like, as it's your server..but this still feels wrong.

I haven't actually bad mouthed MPF as much as people think, and I certainly wasn't going to do it in game inside their server. I only really comment on how "easy" it is to play there compared to other servers and how bad some of the maps are, apparently that is a major insult.

that's not what i said tristt; don't twist my words lol (unless you didn't actually understand them)

his game play was disruptive (and they believe he was cheating)

((to clarify, a player that's cheating is disruptive - have you ever been in a server where someone was blantly running shit?))

i've seen other servers ban players over the years for the same - it's understandable it's not something i would do, but i can see where they're coming from

Vultima's ban, however, is a joke that auto-mute was a response to multiple players (including a mod) being disruptive to me lol and was non-sensical to begin don't really see how that applies to mpf anyway, considering i dont know hardly any players there and therefor dont use chat other than asking for donations or saying "hi"

Just a status update: as unexpected as it may sound still no one on MPF has contacted me to resolve the matter; proving they have no qualm with banning people for being really good at a game.

And with the "herp derp you cheat but we have absolutely no proof" bullshit excuse I won't be amazed they start banning even mediocre players they don't like under that trumped up charge. Even when running anti-cheat.

Of course MPF can fully prove me otherwise, I'm still waiting.

Isn't the first time it happened, thing is when that happened I could speak about it with the mods at those servers and after working it out I got unbanned.

MPF on the other hand appears to have been deadset on banning me for cheating all of a sudden, and they're ignoring my pleas to play a few matches with them on a private server with me recording to prove my innocence or anything else to work it out.

Seeming as this thread turns out to be so popular I wrote a summary of the situation in the first post on the first page, it's worth checking out.

what i was told is that MPF isn't running the 4.0 anti-cheat, so whether you're running it or not is irrelevant (they wouldn't have known or be able to tell either way, correct?)
players can still cheat on their server set up a video camera aimed at your computer screen while you own some stuff in a server if fraps hinders things too much

Don't give in to Renegade-Troll-Forums pressure, zunnie. They do not matter one bit here. Your server will be the better for it.

You can keep him out based on the trolling. His gimmick is starting shit with players, those players usually rage and team hamper him, then he runs to the forum like a little girl and narks them out. They end up getting banned due to "proof of team hamper". Rinse, cycle, fucking repeat. Lets not forget that he's a cheating bitch.

He makes cheats, he does something to make himself glitch while sniping. Pre-4.0 and him coding, he wasn't even good. He was mediocre at best.

Did you ever have 100% proof of Mandai/cyberpunk/any of the other cheaters? Were you sitting next to them? Why ban for not having hardcore proof?

Wrong. Iran is one of the few nerds around here who might actually be able to reverse engineer 4.0.

Chad1233 was telling me how ridiculous the MPF ban was and wanted to help me video myself playing someone decent like himself on a DM server. So we joined a shitty, laggy DM server that doesn't even run 4.0.

Though he didn't want to play like the average MPF player (walking in straight lines, no jumping or crouching while evading) so I only got a ~9.0 kd against him:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=uKq7wEyB8Zg&feature=youtu.be>

I'm looking forward to playing on a non-laggy 4.0 server and doing a sniping montage. I was playing on the Sla Company Mutant Coop server a few days ago and my aiming was top notch, though that was against bots. I'll probably upload that too but I'm interested in doing a sniping montage taken from jelly. It's a bit annoying sniping on Jelly because hits have the tendency not to register with sniper and pistol there.

Now imagine that with the game I got banned on at the score screen; 4.0, almost no lag, about 32 players ingame, I'm whoring 4 shot Ramjets/Volt Rifles/LCGs, camp one spot and 93% of the players I'm up against are substantially worse than chad1233 (the player 'glors' was the other 7% or so).

Then it's not amazing I get double the amount of kills the next best person did, kinda like I regularly do on Jelly when I use a sniper, playing substantially 'better' players (mostly because they sit behind a wall and refill whenever they take about 50 hp damage..)

Yes, it must have been unbelievable I get twice the amount of kills the second best had.

TOO EXTREMELY GUDZZZ

looks like my theory shown in your signature holds up a bit
watch from 4:30 to 4:39 - you absolutely molest that guy, and he manages to body shot you one single time in the entire exchange, bullets flying all around you either he's seriously terrible at Renegade, or something is out of place lol start at 5:30 - he manages 3 body shots on you at close range before you kill him - looks like he's improving!!!!

again at 7:30 - dude spawns and gets turned into hamburger meat at the very end before he dies, he manages to land 4 body shots why are you so hard to hit? and why does the guy look like he's hardly trying to dodge lol

he charges you after that with a LCG, but your aim looks seriously awkward to me you're just doing broad sweeps back and forth, not even trying to keep a steady aim on his face, and it magically works every single time (even more so early on)

at 9:40 it's kind of awkward too - you fire once and he's basically dead on the ground and then gone all in the same second

got to about 13 minutes (see you get irritated with him playing peekaboo for a while lol), and the video decided to stop buffering - i'll watch the rest later when YouTube quits being a bitch

if you read Iran's signature, you'll see i don't believe the fellow cheats
if he does have something outside going on, it's more likely to be something he figured out how to do while tinkering with Renegade code like, say, modifying his connection in a way that allows him to do better in Renegade, one of the few games where damage is client side and not server side (the reason spectate and ghost kills were possible pre-4.0)

it looks like the dude is barely trying to dodge in Iran's fraps (that's how i looked in HaTe's fraps from our sniper 1v1)

i can assure you, i was moving and dodging extremely hard, but you'd never have known by looking at his video on my end, however, HaTe was moving from one side of the Volcano to the other in a single step, warping and teleporting so hard i'd barely get a bodyshot off before he managed to kill me each time

Unless servers turn lag reduction specifically off, the client will always to the hit-detection for objects (not for buildings though). Since turning this off means very annoying gameplay and none being able to hit anything... This is not advised

Which "theory"?

"watch from 4:30 to 4:39 - you absolutely molest that guy, and he manages to body shot you one single time in the entire exchange, bullets flying all around you"

He has 160 ping, of course this happens, I still get it too like that or trying to pistol someone with less than 10 hp at close range, it's not unusual for all my 12 bullets not to register.

"start at 5:30 - he manages 3 body shots on you at close range before you kill him - looks like he's improving!!!!"

at 06:50 he rapes me within 2 secs, he's just having a hard time shooting me because of the lag, you can see how I have a hard time shooting him as well and I have 50 ping and he has 160 ping. You've never played at over 100 ping so you wouldnt know

"again at 7:30 - dude spawns and gets turned into hamburger meat at the very end before he dies, he manages to land 4 body shots why are you so hard to hit?"

I'm not hard to hit at all, see at 06:50 for example. it's his lag lol

"and why does the guy look like he's hardly trying to dodge lol" uhm this guy is trying pretty hard to dodge, he even jumps unlike about 90% of players on MPF and jelly, you can see how a hard time I have hitting him when he's jumping with the lag

"he charges you after that with a LCG, but your aim looks seriously awkward to me you're just doing broad sweeps back and forth, not even trying to keep a steady aim on his face, and it magically works every single time (even more so early on)"

It's a good thing you mention that, I'm compensating for his lagginess and leading my shots. watch 19:20 and you see how it helps me get some good hs on him and 21:25 is also a good example

"at 9:40 it's kind of awkward too - you fire once and he's basically dead on the ground and then gone all in the same second"

Yes I headshot him (about 50 hp damage or so?) and then body shoot him once.

got to about 13 minutes (see you get irritated with him playing peekaboo for a while lol), and the video decided to stop buffering - i'll watch the rest later when YouTube quits being a bitch

i never have that issue with youtube, maybe get better internet?

So yeah what you're seeing here is a guy trying pretty well to dodge (compared to the average jelly or MPF player) just getting destroyed by me on this laggy server. because of his 170~ ping he has a hard time shooting me, but I'm also having a hard time shooting him.

I'll see if i can get a snipe video of me at the front of GDI base on islands with me just killing players left and right like I did on MPF a few days before I got banned, where Hunter-Seeker was invisihugging me from wf door cause he couldnt keep up

So get the popcorn ready

i played this Chad guy last night and the results were similar (until Rambo6 joined on his team and camped in a turret the whole time) the thing that was odd about the headshot-bodyshot-dead thing was him dying, falling dead, and his body completely disappearing all in the exact same second

i checked my dl speed when the video started bugging out, and i was pulling close to 30 mbps download speed - YouTube might not be capped or something in your country, but it doesn't cooperate very well in America not surprising that Hunter-Seeker would try to glitch snipe you; he's a known cheater lol like MDK posted on the video itself, a 1v1 doesn't translate to playing in a full server like shaitan said, you missed shots on this lone player (but hardly did in bigger games at MPF)

you have to get fraps of you actually owning in a larger game for it to matter (and one that actually uses 4.0, so shaitan and others can rule out cheats ((except DJ because his mind is broken)))

False.

Hit detection is done client side, even with TT and is as such not related to lag. Only thing lag influences is how you appear to walk for the other. With lag you might look like you're walking in a straight line, while you're actually trying to dodge like fuck.

Yeah, i was able to record this 27.0 kd game in jelly right now with 28 players and it was starting to lag.

First game of renegade I played today, after some early game basic infantry fighting (where my 1 deaht comes from) i immediately went to sak and started killing stuff. I'm experiencing warpiness, the server's SFPS drops/lag issue and at one point (where I miss 5 shots) stuttering because I'm frapsing. As you can see from the video I my mouse is laggy as result of frapsing too.

The fucking warping and lag is annoying and the reason I missed half the shots I missed. This lag for the most part isn't an issue on MPF's server.

Is MDK@ENGLAND (a Renegade server administrator at MPF) banned from renforums.com still? Over at the youtube comments for the video I posted in the last post it sounds like he's trying to send me a video the moderators at MPF surely had in deciding that my playing style is too good or that I'm possibly cheating. (Note that the ban for cheating itself was without proof)

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=XN87OhdI9Ao>

Can someone over at MPF show this video or PM it to me?

like MDK pointed out, the other team had no ref and no money throughout the video, you kill a havoc that stands 100% still, a deadeye that hops out of the barracks in a straight line, a tib sydney running in a straight line, and a hotwire running in the open (i believe) watching euro fraps is always interesting; the kills come afterwards and whatnot you shoot next to the flinching dude in the barracks and he drops dead lol just looks weird and MDK clearly doesn't have a video; he's going off of testimony why none of them frapsed is beyond me

Yes exactly liquid so I played an average game on Jelly or MPF

I'm pretty sure they have a video cause they'd needed expert analysis and consensus amongst their highly experienced moderator team to ban me.

just played a nice walls flying bar versus hand where no one had any money, 304 kills and 34 deaths, so doing way better than the game i got banned after on MPF. Server still laggy though ;(

they're not going to if it doesn't prove anything (they already stated they can't prove your ban but are holding it anyways)

in your unlucky case it's guilty until proven innocent (UnitXc faced the same on Jelly back in the day), and they won't even let you back onto the server to fraps a video of it

(MDK is still hinting you use triggerbot - might want to ditch your skins and give it nothing to work with)

((that would also shut DJ's accusations down))

((shaitan as well))

where's the fraps of you sniping other actual snipers and whatnot lol

What's wrong with my skins lol

I dont see a need to make fraps of me playing against snipers, on their server I hardly faced any snipers and the map I got banned after was a death match one with a lot of the ingame players (28 in total) running in a straight line.

So basically like that complex and this walls flying game lol

What's the point of making orchestrated videos with noobs who don't fight back and videos of yourself shooting defenseless idiots running in straight lines.

You are self-proclaimed "too good at renegade" yet your videos show you're barely better than a Toast. Good job Iran. I've seen worse players make videos showing better gameplay and it wasn't orchestrated either.

Like I said, why would they want a video of that? 90% of the players I killed in MPF didn't have a sniper and were running in a straight line.

I've asked MPF moderators to clarify things in this thread multiple times already, with no dice.

I'd like to see a video of the "100.5 kd" thing MDK@ENGLAND is talking about.

"where's the fraps? all i'm seeing is screenshots that any cheater could produce lol"

i was playing on jelly marathon with 4.0

"you're not clearing your name; it just looks like you want attention"

What? I'm producing screenshots and fraps of me playing on Jelly Marathon, which uses 4.0 server's anti-cheat.

"there there Iran - all eyes are on you now just like you always wanted :satisfied:"

whoa what lol, i just want to be unbanned and for MPF to act like a responsible community, at least on the official renegade community forums.

"the Walls game looks like you drove an arty and got lots of repairs against a team incapable of stopping it (same happens any time HTMN, Got2bRoni, or jez get arties because they come equipped with 5 to 10 magic repair people)" errrm they use arty on Walls Flying? Really? No wonder they suck. I was playing with Sakura with a little bit of Apache the whole time, getting lots of points shooting snipers and Orcas. I got sick of the dumbass sbhs on my team not planting any nukes while I had a sniper on the mesa so I bought a sbh and chinook and killed wf in about 90 secs.

"((that and the other team doesn't look so good, with stanislav near the top stats-wise lmao))" so it's like the average game on Jelly and MPF, it's good to have that re-affirmed.

Daily reminder no one at MPF has taken responsibility for resolving this matter still and they seem to be ignoring this thread now that there's plenty of evidence their ban is completely unfounded.

Here's a nice 30 minute compilation of footage of last night. Taken on Jelly Marathon with about 50 players, it's Jelly so there's quite some lag.

Really weird, it almost looks like he grasping at straws. I definitely can't assume as much as he already said they have recordings of me (which they haven't released), and that I normally get a "100.5 KD". Though I can't remember ever getting a 100.5 KD on their server.

the first 30 seconds of your video is incredible

what do you mean "some lag?" the players look like they're slow motion multiplayer bots, and you drop them all in seconds

the game never, ever looks like that for me very rarely can people even hit you back - i'm sure you're flickering like crazy from their perspective

the times they manage are when you've been standing still or running in the same direction for a short period of time - the second you start trying to dodge it's all over

i seriously don't understand why shit's basically in baby mode for you lol

it's consistent for the first 10 minutes - you have good aim, but no one can seem to hit you and they're also not doing much moving whatsoever (and i doubt they're all just really, really bad)

you and tristt should both fraps a DM game against each other

I mean the warping on my screen forcing me to spray bullets to the left and right in case people warp there. The less lag the less I need to do it and the better my hit rate is. It's the weird shooting style you were talking about a few posts ago; I don't do it when I have less lag because I don't need to, with the warp I need to guess where the other player will be, even when using insta-hit weapon because they might warp away the moment I shoot.

In the sniping videos you can also see me line up my shot and keeping my reticle on a target's body, that is to quickly get a feel for the player's warp and whether I can shoot or should adjust my aim, you see this clearly when I'm sniping people walking in a straight line. Part of it is to also adjust for my floaty-ness, because I snipe while moving around. And then I still get lots of misses because hit reg..

I don't know why you're implying I'm hard to hit, I see people who are hard to hit all the time (like in that video, the GDI engi I'm sniping on the GDI wall I can't hit because of lag). I call them out on it and they never say I'm hard to hit too. I think you're the first one or so bringing it up.

Like wrs said and every good Euro player can tell you:

'Wrs'

I said that it happens rarely, which is true..i've played ren the past few days and i can still feel a huge difference between playing on a euro server (matrix sniper server) and an american server. everything feels smoother, much less feeling like your ice skating everywhere and being pushed around..(that pushing around feeling seems to me is what causes being warped outside a building..you can almost tell it's about to happen because it feels like you're fighting against an invisible forcefield lol. yes, these laggy moments do happen even with low ping and i'm not denying that(didn't happen to me today) but not very often at all.

barely anyone was that kind lol, probably about 95% of my cw'ing days were on american servers. Don't get me wrong i've played a lot of euro games too (mainly against euro clans) but nothing in comparison (along with every other euro player). I remember american players (specifically jteke moaning about a 180 ping or something on mesa vs me n spoony lol) crying when they had high ping all the time and demanding to play on a usa server if we had some how managed to swing playing on a euro server in the first place. Euro's got used to having to play with high ping whilst pretty much every american player had no interest in playing with lag because they had been used to low ping ren for years lol. I remember the game feeling SO much nicer on the rare occasions i got to cw on euro servers and i was actually good at this game so i could feel the difference more

'Wrs'

well, that was uncalled for on a side note, i wish there was far more European snipe back in the day that weren't seemingly run by dribblers. The "good" american players will find out how bad they really are when playing with the same ping us euro players had to put up with every day for years. That EKT server was one of the very few european sniper servers, i guess me getting banned from it reflects what i said about them being dribblers. This game was remarkably easy with low ping...a nice smooth (well, as smooth as renegade gets) game where your shots register in comparison to everyone warping all over your screen, getting stuck on walls and bullets that bounce off people like they're made out of rubber. super fun time

http://jelly-server.com/forums/index.php?/topic/15143-post-them/page\_\_st\_\_50#entry217202

You can't notice the floaty feeling and ice skating in the video because it isn't much but it screws with your aim, like when I'm jumping while shooting or when I'm walking sideways while sniping. The 'everything feels smoother' thing for me is mostly when you're shooting people with less than <100 ping your shots register better, there's no delay after shooting before damage is taken, you do more damage with tanks because the splash (which is about 42% of total tank damage), which is calculated server side, will hit objects more or closer than with 150+ ping.

The warp issue is really annoying, when players evade by moving sideways it starts warping and I just have to randomly shoot, every time. You don't experience that with less than 100 ping. But combined with the floaty-ness doing shots that need to be really accurate (sniper headshot while jumping, sniper shooting across map with free aim) are a lot harder because of how accurate you need to be. The better you are at the game the more it affects you (like wrs also said in that post).

The only real servers out there that don't lag hard are MPF, TT DM and the Sla Company Mutant Coop server. I could get some videos from the Coop server but then people would tell me I'm just playing against bots.

I've got another video, this time it's Islands sniping, it's a pretty good video but me and at least 7 other players were experiencing lag on that game. Lots of lag lol. I'll upload it anyway but hopefully I can re-do it without the lag. There's also some other sniping videos, e.g. City Flying shooting basic infantry from bridge, but in that game a lot of my hits weren't registering.

I'm recording these as I go, gonna try and get some more non-laggy snipe videos ASAP.

You mean the one were it was a basic infantry game and you were rushing with your team and everyone lagged back and forth in synchronicity because of the Jelly Marathon SFPS drops/SFPS lag issue?

Here's some videos from earlier today.

Canyon sniping.

Walls Flying sniping:

The videos Iran have posted look clean to me, but I haven't watched every single one of them.

The sweeping motion he uses in particular on the walls basic infantry video is very similar to how I do it, I compared it to a sniping video I made four years ago, that was 3.4.4 nd (<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=h5wzDXWhxDw>) - look arund the 1 minute mark.

Iran, I'd recommend posting some up close tunnel videos, considering you were banned on a DM map, chances are it was up close and personal.

But, just remember that it might not make a blind bit of difference if it is their perogative to keep you out of their server, even if you see it as unjustified.

I'd like to see a video taken from a sniper server, Jelly is just full of people walking in straight lines and not making any effort to dodge.

Almost every time I play in Jelly at least 80% of the people in there are moving just like they are in Iran's video, and that's from two different countries in Europe.

Don't see why you want Fraps in a sniper server or me playing against eh in DM, depending on who i play in a sniper server 2.0 KD can be amazing or not and I don't think MPF knows what KD is amazing against who lol. As I'm recording on Marathon I'm already making recordings of players with a higher skill level than on MPF (Other than 1-2 people no one could tell me any decent snipers MPF has).

Just play some games on MPF this weekend tristt, I'll play on Jelly and get some nice recordings.

No, implying that he cares too much. MPF banned him presumably unjustly... /care. This has happened since Ren existed, pretty much. I've only very rarely seen these topics make this long discussions. Particularly because 1) it doesn't belong on RenF and 2) it's MPF's right to prevent players from joining if they wish.

You could compare it to a party which is given in someone's home. You happened to be near some incident and the owner thinks you did it. He kicks you out. Sucks, but it is his right to kick you out of his home.

tristt's joke completely went over EWD's head lol

that analogy is pretty bad

MPF has the right to do whatever it wants on its own server; no one is denying that point
Iran is just making a case for himself, and challenging their credibility as a community (if he's a clean player and getting banned for cheats regardless, he would have a point)

they actually don't care, and are happy to keep him banned (even if he reasonably clears his name)

again, they have the right to do so on their own servers - everyone understands Turns out the SFPS issue isn't fixed (just something else fixed). Had a lot of good games this weekend. just laggy. Here's a glacier game (laggy):

<http://i.imgur.com/WYT3hpL.png> would have gotten MDKs claimed "100.5 KD" if I didn't die a few times, didn't care about KD that game.

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CfrE8yqazDw&feature=youtu.be>

I'm used to the extra smoothness on jelly now so I'll start recording games again was talking with stealtheye and experimenting with some things, figured out how to make map loads as fast as with scripts 3.4.4. Place an empty file called 'always.dep' in your renegade Data folder, that's it.

i know MDK still reads these forums, so i'll reply to him here

the initial ban on MDK was actually made by me, and there were multiple reasons behind it even prior to the cheating incident (which shaitan still claims is true and MDK claims is bullshit), he was being closely watched due to his behavior the way he engaged other players was pretty rude; he was extremely vulgar and overly hostile and violent for little to no reason at all, and i could see why other servers had had a problem with him
i heard multiple instances of what he did at other communities and to people on Facebook (he's still basically e-stalking people now), and thought it would be best for my player base and general public to not have to deal with the guy are those reasons unjustified? based on everything he's done since then (including posting he wants to tie the Jelly staff up in the woods and ass rape everyone on it), i'd say i made a good decision

i'm glad he's moderating and apparently doing a good job over at MPF, but he can stay there as far as i'm concerned tell him to feel free to back up his over 100 k/d claims over with any sort of evidence, and also ask him politely for a list of players banned from Jelly for no reason

There is always that slim chance that it wasn't him. If you remember a few years ago (I'm not sure if Jelly had the problem or not), but there were at least two incidences of a person using another persons IP. Back in MP it was done one time when our admin (Strike) was in IRC, and "Strike" with his IP joined the game. He flipped the heck out, and wasn't faking that lol.

The other, was when TheBeerinator claimed that one shifty fucker of using his IP too somehow. ldk, just throwing out conjecture.

I don't understand why MPF feels like it's above being responsible towards the Renegade community, this topic has 4000+ views and a lot of players don't have an account on this forums and just read it, this is bringing so much bad publicity to them.

"We should regret our mistakes and learn from them, but never carry them forward into the future with us." --Lucy Maud Montgomery

Mistakes like somehow innocently banning a player for being "too good" happen (somehow); you can carry them with you and be ridiculed for them or you can man up and admit you've made a mistake. It's something I've been taught growing up by my family and I thought this was a common thing to do but it seems some people just don't outgrow acting like children.

He's trolling .. he's the most immature child the renegade community has ever had to deal with and there's no way he's attempting to be serious now. I know eventually he'll leave his house though.

As many of you may (or may not) know; my girlfriend had an oophorectomy (surgical removal of one or both ovaries) about five months ago (over Christmas break). I was dreadfully worried about the procedure at the time as there was a high risk that her ovary could have been cancerous. It was a very stressful situation for me and I would come on IRC to vent about it. Iran chose to make this the target of many of his "jokes." To my knowledge I have never done anything to provoke these jokes other than call him bad at renegade when he gets full of himself.

Here are some of the logs:

[02:43:37] <slosa69> if you want some action

[02:43:41] <slosa69> all you have to do is ask

[02:43:49] <slosa69> AnThRaX is happy to give it out

[02:43:56] <TIgKill> lol

[03:32:46] <Atrocity> bony bitch cock boarding woman

[03:32:53] <Atrocity> with a deep voice

[03:38:37] <iran> wow atrocity dont be such a douche anthrax' girlfriend has no ovaries

--

[06:33:15] <@FlaminGunz> AnThRaX you could lose your right hand in a horrific dog sledding accident

[06:33:26] <@FlaminGunz> and still beat me on my host

[06:33:27] <iran> or his ovaries

[16:26:52] <AnThRaX> Kesler17 and crushu06

[16:26:54] <Kesler17> lol kicsi

[16:26:56] <Kesler17> yes?

[16:26:56] <AnThRaX> when are you two going to make it official

[16:27:10] <Kesler17> in the spring

[16:27:28] <iran> AT LEAST KESLER HAS HIS OVARIES STILL

[10:59:02] <AnThRaX> wait he was actually mad? lol

[10:59:07] <AnThRaX> i thought he was kidding

[10:59:07] <AnThRaX> lol

[10:59:11] <iran> i dunno hes dutch you never know

[10:59:35] <iran> whens your girlfriend getting her ovaries removed

[16:56:21] <iran> he cant have sex with his gf

[16:56:25] <~raven> mean ladys

[16:56:29] <iran> because she had something done to her ovary

--

Eventually I replied to his comments with this:

[16:03:46] <AnThRaX> iran is a virgin [16:03:49] <&producepr> that makes me ancient [16:04:08] <+Kesler17> <AnThRaX> iran is a virgin
[16:04:09] <iran> at least i can find myself a girlfriend with ovaries

Which lead to him immediately ignoring (or pretending to) me on IRC for the last three-four months (Thank God.)

Clearly the dude has issues and any smart server owner would not keep him around; hopefully Jelly gets rid of him next.

I never did get the impression that MDK cheated but his behaviour was always weird.

I don't think Iran cheats either, but I do believe he is a bit of a troll at times. I don't think he deserves to be banned for it considering there is no proof of him cheating. I do agree that it is giving MPF relatively bad publicity but it doesn't appear to be having any effect on their player base. It's been said many times before, it is their decision to ban who they want and when they want for whatever reason they see fit.

That logic makes no sense. Not playing somewhere in order to not get randomly banned. That implies self-banning, so that they cannot maybe ban you. Not joining because of fear of being banned has the same effect as being banned. Only difference is that the chances of getting banned are still incredibly slim.

I've got a bit of footage from a field game from earlier this morning, nothing that interesting. I went 100-6, was playing a bunch of games yesterday that went pretty well but i couldnt record cause it was too laggy. in all my videos you can see mouse lag and it's pretty annoying.

I'm a bit done with playing reborn i think and I guess I'll play some more renegade now, hopefully i can get a good field game recorded, the previous field games i've played have mostly been snipers hugging in their base with a ton of snipers on my team in tunnel or tanks camping tunnel :/

You're not the only one. It seems their player base has evaporated within a week of release. They were averaging 45 player games, now there's just five people online.

It is a bit of a shame, IMO. The game is ok and I enjoyed playing it for a while (as johnym, in case I met anybody online). They obviously put a lot of effort into it. I loved playing that beachside inf only map.

They did a good job on bringing some of the TS gameplay elements - I remember harasing the GDI harvesters with a DT a couple of times, MSGs near the tiberium field to protect Nod's harvesters, MLRS assaults from water and Cyborg APC rushes to name a few.

It feels dated, however - like a "Renegade++", instead of a game on its own. Gameplay doesn't feel very streamlined as well and weird at times.

A few things off the top of my head are: Construction Yards are like "just another building" to protect. Balancing is odd with JJs going everywhere (I remember someone called them "the best aircraft" once) and being difficult to kill and Ion Storms don't really affect much, except stealth. The spy knife thing is weird, I still don't get the Engineer medkit and the GDI SAM guy was pointless every time I tried playing as him. It is a 10+ year old engine, indeed, but I hope it goes in a different direction with the patches and all.

Renegade has very little players left, so reborn is more than probably going to follow suit, still, its something a lot of people put time and effort into and it was probably still fun a fun project to develop

Bazil wrote on Sun, 09 June 2013 23:45i wonder has the APB's player count ever reached 75? except for the first days of release

When I still ran the project (2003-2006), releases regularly had full servers. I distinctly recall having two 50 player servers at one point and having to wait to get into both of them for quite a while.

I played Reborn and tried to give it a fair chance, but I really didn't enjoy it. It didn't feel like TS at all. Tossing in TS units (which really don't look all that great considering the way they've been animated) into a big sandy map doesn't scream TS to me. The biggest thing missing was fun. It really just isn't fun at all. It feels like a chore, like I'm forcing myself to keep playing it instead of wanting to enjoy what I'm playing.

I uninstalled it two days after release and haven't really considered putting it back. As I've said in the server, it felt like a pre-alpha. Lots of bugs with graphics, such as Umagon being completely unlit. She looks like she was painted with MS Paint. There's like no skin detail that I could see. She was half-burqa and half generic-yellowish-tan color. Stretched out textures are a frequent issue with the maps. The textures look muddy and undetailed quite frequently, and I still see a lot of Renegade textures for all the crowing about it being a "game". It's obviously still a mod, and one that will hopefully get a lot more work put into it.

I think my #1 issue with it is the lack of TS atmosphere. The environment of Earth at that point is choking noxious fumes with dying vegetation and few livable outdoor spaces. The sun is always covered by clouds and there's a dank fog everywhere. In Reborn, it's the opposite. It's very bright, there's no discernable atmosphere and the fog is non-existent from the several maps I played. It just looked like a Renegade mod with some new units added to it, and a lot of maps with detail added in places players rarely go (Tiberium stuff underneath bridges, for example) with bare mountain tunnels and a huge amount of Renegade's grating texture all over the floor. I'd like to figure out how my very heavy vehicle is capable of driving over gratings that are 25 feet wide and over 500 feet long, with absolutely nothing supporting the grating except for a trench underneath it.

These issues bug me. I'm sure someone else would find better things to complain about, but I hate seeing maps being developed like this when there's so many better examples of how to create modern game levels. You can't call yourself a game and then not hold yourself up to industry standards. Posting this stuff at Polycount would get it ripped apart.

I'd like to see them succeed. I just hope the attitude improves. I played incognito several times and voiced concerns in-game only to be called an idiot by Chronojam, and had people tell me that I don't know anything about games. I'd beg to differ considering my degree field and the fact that I make video games for the US Army for a living. If Reborn can take criticism and improve from what's been critiqued, I imagine they'll do well - assuming the player base ever sticks with it. This game (Renegade) is essentially dead. I have more people online right now in my fleet in Star Trek Online than Reborn has in all of their servers combined. Renegade's essentially unknown to over 98% of video gamers and the ones that do play probably don't care about mods for it.

@Mad_Ivan: Yeah I played with you a fair bit. I was also the one who made the "JJ best aircraft" comment as a joke.

I agree with ACK that the game is a "chore" to play, it also feels kinda directionless with large maps and virtually all units take ages to kill, infantry weapons for the most part feel wonky and weird unit balance. I've lost the count of times I'm at the front of the enemy's team base and I then I hear one of my buildings been attacked just for no one being able to defend it because they're in field and there are 3 enemy infantry in the building.

Hope they'll work on improving it. It was really fun to play (except for a bunch of trolls who didn't get muted) but I can't see myself playing it any longer than I have now, it's already getting old.

Improvement is a relative term. If they avoid using "tech levels" that periodically unlock items in-game, I imagine there's a decent chance that the mod will sustain some players in the future. If they implement them, though, I think it's a safe wager to speculate that Reborn would end up with an average of two players by the end of the year.

One thing I'm left wondering is why they're putting any effort into this old engine when they have perfectly capable programmers who can learn something like Unreal, CryTek, et al. Like it or not, the trend in gaming is toward free games and mobile games. This mod is free, but it lacks the finesse that even an Android game has. I've got several Android games on my HTC One that are more visually impressive than Reborn is, along with being a lot more fun to play.

There's a lot of programming that needs to be done to support C&C mode in the Unreal engine AFAIK and they'd actually need to re-do all their maps and higher the quality of their assets I assume. Tons of work. Easier for a fan project to use an engine that also *somewhat* supports what they need to do with it for the most part.

Maybe you can shed some more light into this cause you have experience with modding and if I recall the Unreal engine. What's your assessment of how feasible coding is and transferring all their assets?

I'm not a programmer by any stretch of the imagination. I will say that I am currently working on a game (Under EULA not to disclose what it is or what it's about until sometime in the near-future, hopefully) and that the programmers working with Unity have gotten the initial stages of the project laid down within a few weeks. There's really no reason why they should stick with Renegade at this point. It's becoming rather disingenuous to call their mods "games" when the code of the mods relies on Renegade to operate with the only modification being changes in scripts.dll that everyone can run. By that logic, any map using scripts.dll is now a "game". It's a silly watering-down of the word to the lowest common denominator.

You don't have to create upgraded graphics for UDK. It's possible to make artwork with the same quality as Renegade but in a modern engine. If they chose to take advantage of newer engines, they've got plenty of documentation and people willing to help. I fear at this point that staying in complete obscurity with Renegade has pretty much killed any chance of moving beyond it for them, though.

I honestly have no idea about programming with the Unreal engine.

It's true that they can transfer their assets at the same quality but I also think they might get criticism for the quality of the work not being something you would expect out of a Unreal engine 3.0 game and then the end result would be in a lot of ways similar than what they have now; just with a better engine. They obviously could start upgrading the graphics after the fact though.

I think the problem with obscurity is not the game being tied into the Renegade engine, it's just the general lack of advertising and the game itself isn't that fun like APB also isn't at the moment. If the game is fun the player base should be stable and advertising + word of mouth will reach people.

There's nothing inherently fun about Renegade's engine and the bad graphics, though. To be totally blunt, both APB and Reborn look marginally worse than Renegade. The models in Renegade may not be the most detailed, but their textures make up for it with baked-in lighting and a consistent art style. APB/Reborn models have a ton of polygonal detail but the look of the mods is worse in comparison to Renegade.

Renegade looks good for what it is, a moderate amount of detail packed into tight spaces. APB/Reborn look bad in comparison because they've got sparse detail spread across massive maps. That also engenders the issues with gameplay being repetitive, boring, and honestly kind of shallow. Renegade wasn't much better, but at least you don't have to wait five minutes between battles while you trek across a gigantic map and hope for the best. Of course, City\Flying has this same issue but to a lesser extent.

Another *real* problem with APB is the fanbase. As Agent Gibson (The guy who founded the mod with me and L3f7H4nd3d) said back in 2004, paraphrased: "All that's left of this mod is the lunatic fringe. There's no reason to develop for it anymore. I'd rather work on something modern without the weirdos that devote their life to a single game."

You can see this in APB's fanbase. Quite a few of them are just downright strange people. The developers are generally pretty good, but the fans are fucking crazy. Look at this thread as an example:

Alucard, on 11 Jun 2013 - 23:34, said:

and you're making me physically cry right now because of your treatment to me which is outright cyber bullying.

When the caliber of your forum-goers is people like that, and a clique-like atmosphere permeating the place, no amount of advertising is going to make people want to play. It's a toxic environment. People can go play free games that don't:

- 1) Have a toxic community
- 2) Have bad graphics
- 3) Have bad gameplay

I'd love to see them dig out of this. The projects they're doing have potential, but they're not going to live up to that potential if they don't actively work on it. Reborn's dropped to 7 players, by the way. I'd be pretty sad/pissed if I spent 10 years on a mod, only to see it flounder a week or two after release.

Your post about the community was really good; I'd like to come back to it as I feel this seems to affect gaming communities in general, for example Blizzard's forums for their games.

One of the issues I have with myself is how spend I too much time laughing about these weirdos instead of just ignoring them and doing something productive. Cause honestly if you look like some of the threads made here even in the last month they're hilarious and pathetic. It's just mindless entertainment; but like gossip really easy to get into.

Like your example; a guy says he's physically crying about how he got abused by a moderator, when I first read it I laughed so hard.

Renegade is a bad game which has almost no skill ceiling because of how laggy the netcode is, hugging a wall, a gun that shots 4 shots with infinite range that kill basic infantry in one shot and other infantry in two shots which also has a scope on it, and you can use it while bunnyhopping and moving. Tank combat actually takes some skill but on large servers it's mostly decided by whose team has more Hotwires/Technicians repairing their tanks. There's some things you need to learn but in the end only hitting Light Tanks who are evading from a distance is hard. Rep shooting adds a bit to the skill ceiling and is fun to do when bored, throwing your tanks off cliffs while engaging enemies to retreat, hide or confuse them is fun.

So yeah the game isn't hard but it's just fun to play; people are still extremely bad at the game, people say or do funny things. Playing basic infantry versus basic infantry games is fun to me (until I'm bored); killwhoring enemy infantry because I have infinite ammo is fun to do, challenging because of my euro ping and the laggy netcode and it's hilarious when people cry about.

I can understand if any other person don't think these things are fun.

The hilarious community around it with people desperately trying to get moderator positions (basically e-janitor if you look at it that way), all the dumb drama and weirdos is great too. Most of these people don't actually play Renegade or not where I'm playing Renegade. It's just funny and pathetic.

I've seen that Reborn has less players now; it sucks for them and I assume that's pretty frustrating too as you like you said they spent a lot of time working on it.

It isn't the whole thing at all lol. On top of the fact I was on TeamSpeak with these people while they were bitching about my "attitude" and 2 of them was bitching about how bullshit my shots and kills were. They were just butthurt so they tried finding anything to go against me. One of them told me to stop typing excessively and just play the game. Even though I was typing while out sniping them and C4ing their turrets (that you can build - fucking retarded).

Aircraftkiller wrote on Sat, 15 June 2013 00:40: There's nothing inherently fun about Renegade's engine and the bad graphics, though. To be totally blunt, both APB and Reborn look marginally worse than Renegade. The models in Renegade may not be the most detailed, but their textures make up for it with baked-in lighting and a consistent art style. APB/Reborn models have a ton of polygonal detail but the look of the mods is worse in comparison to Renegade.

Renegade looks good for what it is, a moderate amount of detail packed into tight spaces. APB/Reborn look bad in comparison because they've got sparse detail spread across massive maps. That also engenders the issues with gameplay being repetitive, boring, and honestly kind of shallow. Renegade wasn't much better, but at least you don't have to wait five minutes between battles while you trek across a gigantic map and hope for the best. Of course, City\Flying has this same issue but to a lesser extent.

Another *real* problem with APB is the fanbase. As Agent Gibson (The guy who founded the mod with me and L3f7H4nd3d) said back in 2004, paraphrased: "All that's left of this mod is the lunatic fringe. There's no reason to develop for it anymore. I'd rather work on something modern without the weirdos that devote their life to a single game."

You can see this in APB's fanbase. Quite a few of them are just downright strange people. The developers are generally pretty good, but the fans are fucking crazy. Look at this thread as an example:

Alucard, on 11 Jun 2013 - 23:34, said:

and you're making me physically cry right now because of your treatment to me which is outright cyber bullying.

When the caliber of your forum-goers is people like that, and a clique-like atmosphere permeating the place, no amount of advertising is going to make people want to play. It's a toxic environment. People can go play free games that don't:

- 1) Have a toxic community
- 2) Have bad graphics
- 3) Have bad gameplay

I'd love to see them dig out of this. The projects they're doing have potential, but they're not going to live up to that potential if they don't actively work on it. Reborn's dropped to 7 players, by the way. I'd be pretty sad/pissed if I spent 10 years on a mod, only to see it flounder a week or two after release.

Well, I agree with what you said and most of the models I textured for Reborn recently were done to be used on w3d and something else in the future (if that happens, it might be without me). I had fun to work on this during 10 years, I learnt a ton of stuff and I really enjoyed to work on the mod. I am still doing it btw. The fan base for C&C Fps is small and I don't see it grow anyway. I can deal with that. I am not sad at all, I am quite proud of the work done. It was a nice experience. And I hope the few that played and will play it will enjoy it as much as I do.

I'm sure you had fun on it. If you do the work for the sake of the work, then it should be something enjoyable. What my point has been through this thread is that Reborn didn't need to die the moment it was born. "BHP" needs to rebrand itself. Drop the "BHP" shit and restructure the way things are ran. Get rid of the Internet Friends Clique mentality. Get the word out to the public once the forums have been cleansed of the putrescent stench of Internet Friends Clique.

I'd wager most people who want to play a game are interested in it because it's not a chore. Chronojam turned that place into a SomethingAwful clone with 0.005% of the SA community's population, and the only people who tend to comment regularly are the weirdo fucks that spend their lives counting the number of bolts on a tank from 1995.

If you want Reborn to succeed, push them to get out of the Internet Friend Clique and start marketing these mods to the general Internet. The only people who know about Reborn right now are the people who followed it for years, and a lot of them have already given up and moved on after a couple of weeks.

I tried my hand at spreading the word of Reborn to most of the people I go to school with, and most of them did not appear to have much interest in it because either they think the graphics look rather dated, which is understandable since most FPS-playing people nowadays want eye candy in their games, and/or they are not too familiar with the C&C series in general.

As for me, I continue to play Reborn and the rest of the Bluehell projects not just because I test them internally with the rest of the BHP team, but because they represent in my opinion an extension of Renegade through their multiplayer. My most favorite C&C is RA1 and when I found out (in early 2006) that RA1 was turned into a FPS, I just had to play it without realizing or understanding its unit balances at the time, just because of the amazing idea of playing as one of your favorite units.

Also, who are you referring to by weirdo fucks? Is it the dev team, or the actual wierdos that discuss in the public forums? (when you see a guy named APB_ICE, ask him about the Illuminati)

In regards to that, I am not offended by such association just because I perform my testing duties with them. Like what Iran said, there is much entertainment to be had with this and surrounding communities, including BHP, regardless of who is doing what and why.

But they're so mismanaged that they end up dying right after release. Reborn should be averaging 24 to 40 players right now. It's been less than a month since release. It currently has 15 players on a Saturday night. That's pretty terrible, honestly. If it were promoted better and they moved on to an engine that could compete with free games released today (I'll keep comparing it to Star Trek Online since it's free and looks vastly better), they'd actually get a fanbase that's more diverse than the "lol I sit on TS with these guys all night" crowd.

It's the Internet community equivalent of in-breeding. There's very few of you left over there who post regularly. There's little innovation, and the player counts are dwindling. The majority of fans saw the writing on the wall years ago and left in droves.

I clearly stated that I think most of the mod teams are pretty decent people. I get along with most of them. There's a few exceptions. The only real entertainment I get from "BHP" is doing a cursory glance at the forum and seeing someone like that "alucard"/Guts kid talking about how he's literally crying because he got banned from a mod for a day.

What is your opinion on Renegade X? I never really got to play it myself.

And you do have a point that sitting on TS with the same group of people all day will not draw in more people, much like how a close-knit community would act rather hostile to outsiders, which is pretty much what has been going on most of my days joining the TS to be quite honest.

I guess you can count me as part of the dwindling playerbase. I just started fundamental nursing classes here which for sure will take up more of my time and effort compared to helping in the development of a free game. It's not to say however that I'm going AWOL on the team, though.

RenegadeX is shit. At least as far as I'm concerned. It holds the dubious distinction of being the only program I've installed that has blue-screened Windows 7.

Color me shocked. I'm not used to rational replies to anyone challenging the Internet clique mentality. You're earning a lot of respect from me with that attitude.

It's a simple fact of gaming: People play what's fun. Even if they don't have a lot of time, they'll make the time to play something they enjoy. APB is not fun. It hasn't been fun for years. Consequently, the players have disappeared. When I still ran the project, it was certainly bug-ridden and not as "polished" as you could call it now, but it had players. The release of 9934 (IIRC? Version numbers escape me 9 years later) had two full 32+ player servers. My shitty old GeForce 4600 could barely handle it. I had to wait to join because there was a queue. Every time someone dropped someone else would hop back in and keep both servers full. Contrast that with today's APB.

He accused me of hacking into his account a couple of years ago. I don't remember why but it was some dumb bullshit he fabricated in his head. Something like "HURRDURR U WERE ADMIEN BEFORE SO U NO TEH PASW0RDZ 2 HAX0RZ MY ACOUENTS LOL"

PS: Don't mistake my disappointment in "BHP" with wanting them to be failures. I worked on APB and kept it alive for a long time. If I didn't pick up the project after Agent Gibson quit, it would've faded into obscurity and you likely wouldn't be here. I'd like to see it succeed, but it hasn't really done well for a very long time. It's time to move this thing to a modern game engine instead of trying to mod something on life support.

Most of them are hesitant to move to a new engine. I honestly don't see why, as they could easily port over most of their assets (except for Reborn, as they don't have most of the assets) to a new engine like UDK. The engine is 11 (or 15 years old if you count when the engine was in development), which is pretty old for an engine, especially one that hasn't had any updates. Granted, the still used Source Engine is also old, at 9 years old (16 years old if you count development years) but at least it had updates to bring it up to modern standards.

They'll want to up their models if they switch and thus export their assets to UDK as an example. Such models would be what people deem as below standard from most games based on UE3.

Below standard for UE3 maybe yes, but it could still look (a lot) better than it does now.

Makes it pretty much impossible to fail to notice C4. Same reason why everyone uses bright coloured stealth skins, increases the range where you effectively can see stealth units. And of course why everyone uses clear scope, cause it makes sniping with scope easier (but IMO not that much).

I've never used any skins in Renegade other than a custom reticle and a darker chem trooper (since the stock one is too bright in my opinion). I play the game the way it's meant to be played.

generalcamo wrote on Mon, 24 June 2013 17:31 Most of them are hesitant to move to a new engine. I honestly don't see why, as they could easily port over most of their assets (except for Reborn, as they don't have most of the assets) to a new engine like UDK. The engine is 11 (or 15 years old if you count when the engine was in development), which is pretty old for an engine, especially one that hasn't had any updates. Granted, the still used Source Engine is also old, at 9 years old (16 years old if you count development years) but at least it had updates to bring it up to modern standards.

We have all the assets for Reborn. Do you even know about what you are talking?

As for engine change, it implies much more than just importing models. Ever read UDK tutorials ? Try.

Or you could try doing something in UDK instead? I've worked in it. I've also worked in CryEngine and I'm currently making a game with Unity. If you don't try you're not going to do anything except languish in Rendegrade while the community evaporates around you.

UDK is pretty flexible, apart from random crashes at times. Had to create a game with my class over the last half year. Own assets and stuff ofc.

@Ack, The free Unity version? I've heard it lacked so much options compared to a payed license version. Was considering trying some stuff in it.

I forgot to quote that part in my reply. This is the game prototype I made with UDK for a year, from 2010 to 2011. I ended up winning first place in my college's media showcase with the trailer for it. I can make better stuff when I'm not rushed and doing the entire project by myself, but I'm happy with how it turned out.

The free version lacks pathfinding, realtime shadows, LOD, asset bundles (aka "custom maps"), HDR, light probes (like lightmaps for dynamic objects), global illumination, occlusion culling, render targets, profiling, automated builds, native code plugins, and other things. It's *very* crippled compared to the "Pro" version.

Its amazing how much better something can look with shadows that actually match what is casting them, throw in a few shaders (not overboard like what some games do) and even a programmer that is crappy at modeling can make a decent looking indoor environment.

Nope, we have every single source file. I don't know why that was written but I have pretty much every single file and I uploaded everything for the staff.

As for UDK, well... I will wait what magic can be done by the staff and see how it turns first.

Considering I doubt the people at MPF have the brain cells to see when people are actually extremely good at a game or cheating and have disabled anticheat on their server I guess I should make more videos?

This topic has about 7500 views now, MPF gets ridiculed over it and many players told me they're afraid of playing on MPF servers now. It's no wonder why MPF has been doing poorly in player count recently (aside from XWIS being down).

Good job there MPF. All the dumb trolling won't make your problems go away.

I find it funny how Iran seems to think that this thread is still about his ban. BTW, at MPF, you could just change the ban reason to him being a troll. Then you wouldn't need to worry about whether he did actually cheat or not, and he wouldn't need to complain any more. Everyone would be happy glad to see renegade is still full of autistic kids desperate for power and relevance.

list of retards (not complete):

DJ - you can barely understand his english. just a total moron. don't need to waste another thought on what is barely human zunnie - braindead admin. not even fit to take care of an ant colony.

good1driver - is this guy 12 years old or does he just fit every cliché of the eastern european moron?

shaitan - I don't even know this guy and his posts are depressing. I can feel the gravity of a worthless existence pulling me in through his posts. autistic and/or extremely angry kid that never grew up.

kickmofo - this guy is an idiot. anyone who is prone to random and psychotic outbursts is not a good person. even if they pretend to be nice during the time they aren't freaking out.

fredcow - the forum religious zealot. don't need to waste time saying anything else

Na,wyld likes to tell this story in a diff. way then it happened, basically his son bought an apache on city, i bought 1 also,and when i moved in i accidently bumped into his apache still beeing on airstrip, it was ofc destroyed, i refunded his son, and the story was basically over,before mr. ejanitor wyldfaggot came to forums and tried to made a big story out of it, we were having a good laugh at his posts in modsection,lols.

Omg a friend old me the idiot was back posting about me.

DJ we have all been very nice making an effort to not embarrass your ass on these forums and MPF's. But you just keep flapping your mouth. I would stfu and just forget ren like you have done so well so far.

You can blame your incompetent, power hungry, rage laced, immature, and childish ways on me all you like. Bottom line you got removed at MPF (and the 2 other comms someone made you a mod) and it had nothing to do with me. It was all you and your actions. You have no clue about ALL the MPF staff that never wanted your ass there and couldn't say yes fast enough to get rid of you. If you think I had the power to remove you your an idiot. I never would have added you if I had that power. Yeah think about that....

MPF has been wonderful since you were booted. Not ONE DAY of drama since you were tossed out. Don't try to save face with this group, they know you better and my real Ren friends here know me.

BTW the A54 - NS shit with my son is nicely documented on NS forums so trying to twist what really happened just supports your an idiot. Paddy showed me the logs I know. You did a !cns (like you did on EVERY player) on A54 IRC thought it was me in the server, saw an Apache purchased and you rammed it. (I was watching my son play btw.) You deliberately flew from high above to hit it. A typical DJ rage moment. You wanted to provoke a fight so you had a reason to ban me. But that didn't work. I took it to Paddy who was sick and had no idea you were killing his community while he was gone, which you did. Your plan B was to twist my words about the comm war on NS forums creating a reason in your mind to again ban me but guess what it was too late you already killed A54. Here you are several years later still raging about me.....entertaining this group. LMAOROFL.

A log someone sent me as an example of DJ as a Mod. Quick someone add him he's pro! Funny he was always a pussy and spoke in German.

tanker got removed for being the only mod that didn't support my ban when i got most my info from liquid himself indirectly and two other mods as well as someone that wasn't a mod with a bunch of secondhand info .. lol too funny the shit that goes on at JeLOL games .. did liquid ever admit to being the one leaking or did he just stop posting when i made him look like a retard?

Jesse wrote on Fri, 14 February 2014 11:54pls respond jelly nerds or is liquid too busy compiling a 30 page pamphlet to send to my house? i couldn't believe he said that on teamspeak LOL and he was dead serious.

Notice anything about that post? (this is from the banned from Jelly thread)

How about that you replied to your own post? Nobody actually answered your post, you just said that short sentence, out of nowhere, ostensibly to claim that you heard liquid say that in Teamspeak.

Naturally, you didn't hear liquid say that in teamspeak. I gathered from your post before that that you were obviously reading our mod forum, so I said something in the forum, and then you made that post. Tanker probably said "hey Jesse, I'm trying to help you out, stop throwing me under the fucking bus!" and then you're like "OH OK LOL I'LL JUST TELL THEM I HEARD IT ON TEAMSPEAK." Yeah, sorry, didn't work, you god damn sociopath.

Our logs show someone logged into Tanker's forum account on a proxy at the exact same time as you were logged into RenForums. Ironically, you probably didn't use a proxy until I said "Jesse's too fucking stupid to use a proxy" in the mod forum, at which point, you did. And even though I didn't think about it at the time, the proxy is what made it obvious!

Also, there were only two people that voted to not ban you permanently, and since tanker got removed now there's only one... guess we'll see you around... not!

P.S. If you're going to lie, at least correlate your story with your accomplice. Tanker admitted to letting you look at his forum account, lol.

I'd just like to point out that the only reason Tanker got caught helping you out is because you literally cannot stand to have people attacking you where you can't defend yourself, so you tried to defend yourself here... which naturally drew some questions, because you were defending yourself against things that weren't said on here!

When Crimson and luv2pb used my admin password on Exodus forums to read the forum, we didn't notice until Crimson made some little quip about something we had said in private on a RenForums thread, which prompted Prulez to look at the Apache access logs and see that, indeed, a Phoenix, Arizona IP address and a Wisconsin IP address were logged into my account, viewing our private forums. (my own fault, however - I used the same password at n00bstories and RenForums as I did at Exodus, so it was a very trivial matter for her to get my password)

The point is that we caught you the same way. If you hadn't opened your fucking mouth, we never would have known and Tanker would still be a mod but - nope, you're too god damned stupid!

good riddance LMFAO

EDIT: HAHAAAAAAAAHA Jesse posted some pictures from liquid's Facebook in the post ^ above me, but then he edited and removed them. What, you let your anger get the best of you? LOL

Crossing over into MDK-zone now, son. Ironically, you're both permanently banned from Jelly! (that being said, MDK conducts himself much better at MPF)

And I suppose I'll throw you a bone: you didn't fake any logs, you just rearranged completely unrelated ones to make some people look bad, and didn't do a very good job of it.

You should let nikki write your rage posts for you on here, at least they'll be funny then!

Hopefully they will be working on their Server also, the downfall of MPF began when they decided to implement shit ton of Custom maps with retarded additional vehicles. They blatant ignored the request of old time renegaders, and the result had nothing to do with renegade anymore,sadly, now since zunnie is gone they hopefully think again about this decision, Shit was way to overmodded in the End.
