I used to play years back. With a downloaded renegade, updated, with no cd crack, and with game spy. Then after game spy it was resurrection as a server browser and anti cheat.

How do we play now?

Do many people still play? Lots of servers and stuff?

Welcome back.

Instructions to instal and patch Renegade can be found at:
<http://www.renegadeforums.com/index.php?t=msg&th=39331&start=0&>

I haven't played myself in a while due to lack of time but there are usually at least 2 servers with a good player count.

I actually tried tiberium technology but it made the game unplayable i think cause i dont have a cd or dvd...is this an issue?

Can i just play a downloaded version?

The TT patch installs a no-cd version of the exe (afaik) so as long as you have a valid serial, you're fine.

And just saying 'it made the game unplayable' isn't really informative. Not informative enough to help you anyway.

If what G1D said is true and if you mean by unplayable that your cheats don't work, that is correct. 4.0 has an anti-cheat so cheats no longer work.

Otherwise please provide information on how/why it made the game unplayable (as in, what is not working properly when you install 4.0; errors? crashes?). Also make sure you read the FAQ in that sticky in relation to AV programs that may cause false-positives.

I didnt hack.

I dont have a "valid" key. It isnt valid for wol or w,e. But valid to install and play on gamespy or resureciton in the past. Could that be the issue?

Probably but you're not giving any details on what is not working so I can't tell for sure.

All I can say is that you need a valid serial if you play through WOL. You can also use RenList to browse and join servers.

It's okay, Good-One-Driver has released cheats so nobody really regards his opinion very highly.

I never cheated. I did once have a clear scope if that is considered a cheat. But never did any other mods at all, not even skins or hud like you see some do.

I was banned from a few servers from noob admins before thats for sure. Happens in all games I play. some kid admin rages after getting owned and bans.

It was a key gen that I used, not a shared key. I did actually own the game way back but lost it since.

I have played on off for YEARS at least 10 years. Last I was playing in wittebolx server or w.e where you gained credits and could build things.

Mainly play aow but some sniper n stuff now n then.

No, he cheated we had like 4 videos of his and tons of screenshots. It's okay nobody really cares anymore the past is the past, just don't lie and say you didn't when you clearly did. I'll admit I have made cheats but that is when I was raging from Renegade, ha the last bit of the community needs to stick together and get along but we all know that wont happen

Fair enough, I apologise then Dav3. We know a certain person who moves from Canada to the US biweekly!

Dave2916 aka Skeptical cheated but that was 9 years ago before he cleaned up and became the cool guy that he is now. But I wasn't referring to that Dave.

Nickname could be right... but then it was more like 6-7 years ago, I think.

Think it was bighead. Can't remember. But it was something easy to catch. Dave2916 was a pain in the ass so far back. He was a big liar when he was administrating and running servers back then. He was my age but he had the attitude of what the average 13-14 year old would have like that WNxBubble kid who posed as a girl except Dave didn't have a gender problem lol.

BUT THIS ISN'T ABOUT THAT DAVE. DAVE IS COOL and it was so long ago. RAWRRR!

I've actually never cheated in my life of Renegade. Not really sure where you got this from Xpert. I got wrongly banned in n00bstories once and that was cleared up pretty swiftly.

Edit:

Thinking back I did get kicked out of Baja about 2004/5ish for what they thought was cheating. Some guy called Vexx01 had a bit of a grudge against me for some reason - but again I was playing legit.

There would be no real need for me to lie so hopefully you guys can take my word for it.
