on the first page, MDK says: without the evidence we can not ban people well we could but then we would become like other servers and that would be wrong

take a look at what they did to Iran
the irony is actually pretty humorous

however, if you take a look at the video it ignores a key point regarding Renegade physics:
shooting in first person on an incline or decline will show the player shooting the ground sometimes

like i posted on the video, you can recreate this on Complex while firing from the ramps up to the middle and whatnot

I'm going to double-post to mention one very important point. When "zunnie" talks about trolls, this is what he means:

Troll being defined, as usual, as someone who you disagree with but whose ideas you lack the intellectual capacity to rationally deal with. Why not just use "heretic" instead? It's closer to your real meaning.

MPF might want to stop posting IPs publicly like that they don't have to; it's just common courtesy i think zunnie's logic on Iran's ban was that they couldn't prove him a cheater, nor could they prove him innocent that logic is bad, because literally anyone in Renegade could be cheating - that doesn't mean they're going to be good, and it doesn't mean you can or will be able to prove it lol

Hunter-Seeker claimed Iran had been a cheater not long before the ban

GenOBrien's thinking is that a player can only get 100+ kills if they die 100+ times in doing so - it shows they don't see many good snipers very often (this point is valid whether Iran was actually cheating or not, which he's shown he honestly did not have to do what he did) the MPF-should-unban list now includes three players (forgot Vulgina)

(1) This ban was 5 months ago. Why discuss now? Iran you that bored or can't find a ban like yours since you were ban so you have to go backwards in time? ehhh Enjoy!

(2) The Player NEVER posted to contest to state his case. Says a lot about guilt. Most innocents post immediately. So the player didn't care so why should anyone else? Had he posted maybe he would have been unban.

(3) Too funny I didn't even reply in that thread but ACK you but yet bring me up (again). Your continued obvious obsession (jealousy?) with me seems to be ripping you apart based on how much you bring me up. Do you like drool or spit at your screen when you post about me? You must really be abused in real life or just have a shitty life to act like you do on these forums. Truly pitiful m8.

Come on big alpha male what you got to say now? Maybe a cool ACK picture or snappy reply that your 2 or 3 fans can masturbate over??? lol

Look at the e-janitor responding to posts that aren't worth commenting on.

Here's what really happens when E-JanitorUSA responds to a thread:

Hmm, I wonder how I can post a reply to this... Better toss in some Dr. Phil psychobabble to sound smart!

Oh peanut butter and jelly sandwiches. They're arguing again! It's my job as E-Janitor to stop this calamity!

Writing a lengthy post full of psychobabble will definitely make me a lot of friends and ensure that this dead community never forgets the name E-JanitorUSA!

Whew, posting psychobabble on forums is hard work! I hope they've learned their lesson - they'll never disagree with me again. I better get back to my e-janitor job so people won't break rules in a video game server!

you should ban a full server of players and keep the ones that don't post banned on the premise that they were cheating lol

it's really about principle here - do you honestly think rambo6 was cheating there, once you take into consideration that the shots he took were fully legit? unless there's some other evidence somewhere that proves him a cheater, you should really release that guy even if he never actually comes back, it's the right thing to do and what ehhh said is true - rambo6 can't actually type words other than "hahahaha" or "wasted"

let vultima back in since his ban was really a misunderstanding or language barrier thing - he made a sarcastic comment that was taken as literally as possible

I got banned for 'cheating' in a two-bit server once. I didn't contest it because I realized the moderator team was comprised of illiterate, drooling retard jagoffs.

An entirely plausible situation in this case.

I was only speaking to Rambo not posting. Not getting involved with Iran's Ban. My opinion on Rambo's ban is not going to over turn the ban. I can see where Rambo's shots were hitting the ground and killing players at the same time, so I can see the concern by the mod staff. Had Rambo posted, it probably could have been sorted is all I am saying. I find it very odd he never did post to contest and clear his good name.

And yeah Basketball is best sport. You use pretty much all your muscles and your mind at the same time. Making 10 out of 10 shots, shutting down the player I am guarding, getting a nice sweat on is an awesome feeling, and just the fun we have. (like playing ren with your buds on TS) The next morning can be rough but it smooths out as the day progresses.

And ACK you can just stop. Your pitiful attempts to find a button to push is really making you look desperate man. I could care less about you and anything you say. (I really don't even read it lol) But hey you want to keep embarrassing yourself, knock yourself out lol.

Wyld1USA wrote on Wed, 16 October 2013 12:33I can see where Rambo's shots were hitting the ground and killing players at the same time, so I can see the concern by the mod staff.

we mentioned this - it's because rambo was firing in first person, and there are cases where a player can hit something in first that they could not in third the result is what appears to be a player hitting the ground, when in reality that's what they'd be hitting in third person

i'm sure you've encountered this at some point in Renegade, because it's coming up on 12 years old now you can see it for yourself on maps like Complex, when a player is firing upwards from down a ramp (it will work anywhere that there's a low ground vs. high ground situation)

you banned him based on a misunderstanding of Renegade and Renegade physics - you should really unban him immediately, as he's guilty of nothing but being persistently annoying lol

Exactly LOL! The fact you guys banned rambo for cheating is just fucking hilarious.

What's more hilarious (if that's an appropriate term here) is experienced members of Renegade informing you guys that that is simply a first person glitch (though I myself wasn't aware of it 'til now), and you guys simply discard it because "he must be guilty if he didn't immediately make a forum account and post in defense of himself!" Hey, we've used a similar policy before, but not for someone that we knew for a god damn fact was wrongly banned!

Also, I've never in my entire rene-career seen a wallhack that would make the floors invisible (hence the term, wallhack), which would have to be the case in the video of rambo. You guys are free to run your community as you choose and I will not infringe upon that right, but I do reserve the right to make fun of you guys for doing a terrible job!

it looks like they at least try to, but it just goes all wrong

they ban some players for cheating with no proof of anything, and others off of videos proving their innocence

it's actually pretty crazy

and afterwards they try to justify why they aren't removing any of the bans, even though their reasons why have been shown to make no sense at all

Nope, we've had several issues where everyone gets kicked from the server because one random map file was blocked. Kind of irritating.

Yes, this is actually quite a problem we have. I mentioned for one of us to make a thread in the TT subforum about it, but I kinda forgot. Usually when we put a new map on we haven't tested, a whole 40-50 player game gets kicked out because of the anticheat.

liquidv2 wrote on Sat, 12 October 2013 11:41you should ban a full server of players and keep the ones that don't post banned on the premise that they were cheating lol

it's really about principle here - do you honestly think rambo6 was cheating there, once you take into consideration that the shots he took were fully legit? unless there's some other evidence somewhere that proves him a cheater, you should really release that guy even if he never actually comes back, it's the right thing to do

I vultima back in since his ban was really a misunderstanding or language barrier thing - he made a sarcastic comment that was taken as literally as possible

Yeah I agree about the principle and no I don't think he was cheating as I know him. But It's always hard to defend or fight for a player when they aren't trying themselves. Liquid you know me well enough to know I do my best to clear innocent players. I don't always have the power or cooperation. I'm also the 1st to admit if I made a mistake. Hell I ban JPNod in like 2003 from my Renmasters server, later unban and apologized.

Its nothing wrong to become better during playing a game, thats a possibility i give iran , unfort. he has become an accurate Sniper over a very short amount of time, which non-naive would realize as modifying the game to his own advantage. Its easy as that, if he wouldnt have been posting so much about how he find loopholes and abusing glitches in the code plus acting like a complete asshole inhere and in other locations ppl would actually see him in a different spotlight. As an average Player who gained his experience during the time he played, unfort. he likes to play that outrider/asshole role. And aslong as this impression is the main thing that pops up in peoples head when they hear his name, he wont be handled different.

 damit Probleme gleich im vorfeld aus dem Weg geräumt werden, durch deine Geheimniskrämerei und VersteckSpielchen hast du Situation überhaupt erst soweit gebracht, sorry, aber du wirst genauso behandelt wie jeder andere Spieler auch, und bevor andere sich um dich gekümmert haben habe ich das lieber gemacht soweit ich konnte und es im Rahmen der regeln machbar war. Hättest du von Anfang an kooperiert und vernünftig geantwortet wäre uns das erspart geblieben, sorry

Why?

Quote:Natürlich laggt es wenn man die SS Funktion nutzt, da wird leider keine Rücksicht auf dein internet genommen, wie auch, man kann schlecht abschätzen was auf der anderen Seite des Monitors los ist gell^^

Yea but you could take just one screenshot, not 1000 in 3 days.

Afaik i answered everything.

You were just mad that i refused to speak german on a non german server.

Hahaha this is so funny, no more hiding behind the excuse

"English isn't my first language" or in the tongue of DJ "english isn't my first Language", better capitalize those big words bro

Campa your image isn't appearing for me

There is a difference in intentionally using words to shorten sentences, yet the sentence is still perfectly understandable, and posting garbage that nobody understands without reading about 4 times
