Firstly, you was banned for using bighead a few years ago, then banned at Jelly for "aimbot". So you haven't had a squeaky clean 5 years gaming as you claim.

Secondly, you was banned with evidence, I don't know why you keep insisting that there's no evidence against you, when there is.

Thirdly, I didn't ban you solely, there was a internal vote and the majority of the staff voted in favour to keep you banned.

Fourthly, TmX doesn't ban players without evidence.

I found your pm on me to IRC highly entertaining, the staff at TmX also think it's hilarious. Thank you for amusing us.

<NLsRene1> face the reality

<Sean> I warned you not to

<Sean> 2 mods jus agreed with me then too

<Sean> you bring it on yourself

<NLsRene1> lol, why tell people i cheat?

<NLsRene1> i never used fking Triggerbot or *cheat name removed*in my life

<NLsRene1> and u tell people that i cheat?

<NLsRene1> are you insane?

<NLsRene1> i will visit marcel his home for this since he lives in the same country

<NLsRene1> also i will call the police

<NLsRene1> what you guys do is called Inet-attack

<NLsRene1> and since it's a paid server i will so hard win this case

<NLsRene1> but yeah i will go and visit marcel i will play the same way on his computer as on mine

<NLsRene1> so .. the Renforums are now in this case as well

<Sean> LMFAO

<NLsRene1> wow

<NLsRene1> ur staff isn't so nice against you

<NLsRene1> lots of them are talking to me on irc right now

<NLsRene1> lol.. and more likely it's against you

<NLsRene1> sad

<Sean> mhm

<Sean> Well add this to your report to the police

We allowed you to dispute your ban, the overall majority of moderators voted in favour of keeping you banned. We allowed you back to irc until you started causing trouble and mentioning cheats in our #tmx game channel which I warned you about before hand, you ignored us and decided to rage, which earned you a gline.

Congratulations for digging yourself a bigger hole and limiting your chances of being unbanned 10 fold.

Edit: Editing your reply because you know that you have no case in hell? lol...now you look like even more of a fool.

So you're suggesting that all Dutchies should be banned? Is that from Renegade, or from particular servers? Cuz I'm fairly sure you don't want to ban someone like StealthEye, and personally I don't see why you would want to ban me either.

Probably not, it was only substantial evidence, various pieces of fraps that gave the impression that he was using triggerbot.

Despite a 12/6 vote to keep him banned, the owner Reloaded overruled and has unbanned him with the following conditions attached:

"ReLoaDeD"NLsRene you will be able to play again under the following conditions

You:

- Will fraps and upload every game you play in our server.
- Will play on the nick NLsRene.
- Will follow the rules and won't insult any other players or moderators.
- Won't use any skins.

If you don't follow any of these conditions, the ban will be continued.

These conditions will rule until the majority of our community believes your innocence.

Post your fraps movies in a reply and include the fulldate + timezone.

Post a reply with "I agree" and your ban will be removed.

So the case is closed for now..

Not to mention a while ago when in one of your st0rm clanwars videos you body shoot a guy behind a wall in the tunnels on C&C_Field while he's behind the wall the whole time! Liquid probably still has the video.

if DJ is owning at anything in Renegade, he's either glitch abusing from a wall or straight up using cheats like Iran said, it wouldn't be the first time for him lol

NLsRene is so desperate to play that he'd agree to any terms you come up with Sean guy - that doesn't mean they aren't completely ridiculous

but since he gets to play in any form at all, it's less ridiculous than MPF keeping rambo6 banned with zero proof

i feel like Renegade deserves better

I never came up with anything mate, Reloaded/Relax did.

There had to be a lot of restrictions in place to satisfy the mod team that he's not cheating.

It's not permanent either..when he's uploaded enough, then we'll review it.

I dont have evidence, i never mentioned i have, its the same as you just mentioned, i played 1 time in tmx in like 1 year i guess, considering the fact i have been modding and playing with a sniper most of the time in the last years, im a pretty decent Sniper. Thats a fact, its up to you if you think different. I dont even know Midas, ill be honest here, i know that Nickname from playing on 1337 years ago, but i dunno who he is playing now nor do i have any contact with him afaik. The st0rm Story is what u mention, i easily cleared the situation by explaining how what u suspected me off wasnt working. I explain it once again to you, just in case you missed it, u said, i used BB, i told ya that if i would have used it, my reticle would have been red the moment the person got killed, i killed him, he lagged back behind wall, thats the whole story. If u can proof my fact wrong, i would like to see how, cuz thats the way how it happened, and nothing else, so the ball is in your fieldplace now

Ok, soz.... You are actually blind and or have no clue what u talk about?

1. I see a dead body laying on the floor, according to the kill Message the Guy who has just been killed, u see that also? Where is he behind a wall?

2. there is a guy behind a wall, but as far as i can tell he hasnt been killed in the SS you mention right? And if so, where is my reticle red? According to you and to clarify it for you, BB means the reticle turns red and the guy gets killed, i dont see it anywhere there, do you? if so, make a ss and show me, because i dont. Not to mention dragon players always had the worst ping ever in renhistory, not the first and last time i kill a person who in the open and lags or jumps dead behind the wall after he got killed. So as i said last time, there is no evidence for anything as there isnt anything besides normal play u see.

3. Video from 2011, i cant even tell if that was Jelly, and if so who cares? Oo its been from 2011 and im pretty sure back those days i have been getting a tempban or somehting, liqtard proly can confirm that, he has a crush on me with most things so he proly have that in his special dj folder

Did i missed something? i guess not, now learn from your mistake and move on kind sir.

there's a cheat where guns were made larger, and people could just shoot those instead there was another point in the video when his reticle lit up red vs. a shotgunner and his aim was nowhere near the guy video looks like he had a big gun model applied for shotguns lol he also frapsed himself glitch abusing in Jelly, so again it's not surprising

the reason these screenshots were most suspicious to me is the shotgunner never moved - he didn't lag out, he didn't run too far and yo-yo back; he just stood way the fuck behind the wall and DJ was able to touch a part of him and get the hit box to show up all the way back there
