I made a phase defense in 3ds max. It has a fully animated skin, is partially transparent (hence the name), allows soldiers to walk through it but tanks and projectiles hit it, has an orb at the top to shoot from, but is missing the part that let's it shoot... Anyone wanna help?

/Edit: This should help

I'm assuming you mean "beautiful" either sarcastically, or referring to the gameplay value, rather than the actual aesthetics?
