Well MPF since you wont let me post my good bye post on your forums. I will post it here and let the people of these forums rip you apart

Basically instead of dealing with problems they just hide it and ignore it. They dont care about players, they care about there own selfish interest. Take away Renegade and u got a pretty shitty community there.

Well have fun.

PS: I dont give a fuck what people think about me!!!

it's fun for people at MPF to keep making new things they get bored of the same old projects, and so they move on to new ones case in point, the RAFPS thing (still iffy about that title)

why sit around and fine-tune something when you can ignore it completely and make something new? that seems to be Zunnie's philosophy you aren't down with that?

I get why you're upset, but I also get why they dumped you.

Why wouldn't you bring problems you have with Zunnie actually TO Zunnie? I bitch about shit all the time to him, he can take criticism. From an unbiased outside opinion, I would say it would probably have something more to do with you talking shit behind his back.

If you had your own server, I'm sure you would want any input to come to you, good or bad. Whether Zunnie would or would not act on it would be another discussion, but honestly, if I found out one of my mods was talking garbage about my work or the server I run, instead of bringing any issues to me was bad mouthing me to other players, I'd be a bit pissed too.

Do you go to work and tell your customers/clients/whatever that the product/service you're offering is crap? No. You'd be fired the moment your boss found out.

I don't agree with EVERYTHING the MPF team does, and I've made my opinions on certain things known directly to Zunnie/Mauler/etc. The truth is, these guys work damn hard on the server trying to update it and keep it fresh. Is everything a complete win? Of course not, but that's where trial and error comes in.

The MPF team is a good group of guys. When I didn't know jack about C++ or Bren or server stuff, other people would act like complete dicks and blow me off, but the MPF guys opened their doors to help me without question.

I wouldn't be able to update and improve my own server without guys like Zunnie, ImperialKaskins, Unknown, Neijwert, and others who were there with the help and patience I needed to get started. I know there are some in the Ren community that take issues with Zunnie & company, but in my own personal opinion and experience, they're some of the nicest people I've worked with over the MANY years in the Ren scene.

And u miss the point the completly.

The point is zunnie run MPF like a dictortship. yea they may help people. But when it comes to there server its there way or the highway.

The reason why zunnie got rid of TF2 is so he could use the TF2 box for hosting. Not sure what kind of hosting. The person who was running it didnt want to give it up. Zunnie told her to stop. Then the owner of the TF2 server left MPF.

GenObrien is a fucktard of his own accord and so is MPFmike. MPFmike says "lol" on teamspeak like zunnie but never actually laughs. Who the fuck says the term "lol"...

But there is only 1 thing me and Gen can agree on, MPF doesn't like negative opinions. The sniper server mod I put together for them had a lot of publicity. It got taken down just because I made it even though it actually brought players in lol. We'd get events going that consists of 12v12 sniper battles. It was pretty sick.

You mention one thing bad about MPF, your post gets deleted and you get removed from staff. As long as you have the IQ level of DJ-Eye's, you can be a mod!

It's sad, Ice187DNA (long time member with zunnie) left MPF and account deleted because her TF2 section got removed and she went to rencorner. Never saw that coming! You're okay with removing inactive game sections and losing long time friends, but you won't take in criticism. Good shit MPF!

And the only reason why you even bring up St0rm is because your fake e-gf Tessa is back to moderating there because she shutdown her lame ass Black-Widow gaming that was dead for over 5 years.

I still find it funny that she continues to put fake pictures of herself as her profile picture but you believe it's her even though you can google the images that trace back to either porn or dating websites lmao. I still get a kick out of that audio that she claimed she was fighting with her brother but I exposed her because it's a game audio from "The Last of Us". But it's your fairytale Gen!

And Outsmoke, I don't think you've been in the MPF shoes completely. You just play there. When constructive criticism is directed at zunnie, he doesn't listen. It's been like this for almost 12+ years now. The guy hasn't changed at all. I'm pretty sure there are numerous things I can list that were directed at zunnie but were ignored. And you know what's sad, during those few weeks or months that zunnie was gone at the end of 2013, MPF was booming pretty well. zunnie being away from MPF was the best thing that ever happened to their player count. Good 'ol roszek did a great job handling the server. The moment zunnie came back, it went back to shit again lol. All the garbage maps that were removed, got re-added and everything became fucked again.

Oh, and I'm not saying MPF are "bad" people. There's just people there that are completely stupid at running the place. Gen is right, only moderators spam up the shoutbox and forums. It's sad. Especially for a community that's been up for awhile now.

Ahh, I don't even know why I posted all this. OH WELL, BOREDOM.

The reason why Ice187dna went to Rencorner because Mauler,Cronus,Zunnie,Mike and Kalo she thought were her friends were actually stabbing her in the back and trying to force her out. Its strange that Ice once had all this power and when cronus got promoted she ended up losing a lot of it... O yes lets think cronus was telling zunnie she shouldn't have this and that and so he kept limiting it so she basically had nothing and if I recall zunnie you tried telling her that it was me that said all them things... And Cronus dont care if your a developer for unreal/anope your still a fat useless bastard that sits all day in front of a computer thinking he's doing a professional IT job when in fact all you do is work for a tobacco company LOL. And if I recall does Van with a mattress and you having sex with a fat bird in the back sound familiar it must of been like eating your first cheese burger all over again losing your virginity that way lol. And Xpert that mod you made for the sniper server was very good to bad MPF didn't want it because it wasn't made by them.

If Zunnie wants to run MPF like a dictatorship catering to mentally, emotionally and physically challenged people he has all right to. And if he wants to backstab people and hold e-grudges against Internet friends because they dare to give constructive feedback and criticism he's well within his rights.

I honestly don't understand why some haters on the MPF forums (like that failcod666 guy and roszek) despise maps like these:

MPF can run their community however they want. Its mostly just a group of modders that enjoy making stuff on the w3d engine. If they don't listen to their own community that's silly.

At rencorner our TF2 and CSGO servers are populated. Several renegade players play csgo ... and many other games.

Ice187DNA is doing awesome work with the TF2 server. You guys are stupid if you outed her. Cronus doesn't like girls.

Tiny I don't even know what to say to you besides I knew you would fuck up.

Well I do not care either way when it comes to the drama but I do have to agree that the MPF maps aren't the best and to be honest I don't like most of them. Now way back in the day UNRULES had some pretty good maps for their roto.(UNRULES was really the only good custom maps server to ever be in renegade in my opinion) what kind of person am i? im the person who stands up and tell people that mpf doesnt care about its players. i dont force it on anyone. they choose to read it. the fact of the matter is none of the staff at mpf cares about this post. imo is wrong cause this give them a chance to improve things. sadly they wont. you could call this a review of mpf.

well its too bad you dint bring this shit up when you were staff then isnt it but lat is just the sort of person you are isnt it the guy that stand in the back doing fuck all and then bitching about how things should of been done ... to me this makes you a pussy "i dont wanna rock the boat and say i dont like how stuff is run at MPF" but as soon as you get kicked/banned ya will say the all this and even say that white is black and black is white just to make you the victim the person that did no wrong (witch is bull shit) ... maybe you are a victim (of your own doing) but some victims deserve what they get and you are no exception !

the thing is, you were a server mod and you dont / didnt know whats going on @ MPF, server staff are just server staff they dont run the community they help manage it (but you wouldn't know anything about that as you never did your job) but you say its a dictatorship, ok so your saying i have never had a say in anything as community admin, thats odd coz i could of swarn i have. it may of felt like a dictatorship to you as you never voiced your concerns to server admin, community staff, community mods, community admin or the community founders imo you are a spineless little shit that has to make delusional accusations up to make your self fell better ... you can though around words like dictatorship all you like but the fact is thats not how MPF works.

then tell me where everyone talk on irc? no one talks in any of the irc channels. there is no communication between server mods and staff. it all happens in private which is stupid and leads to problems.

Alot of problem and bans could have been prevent. But no, some how u make things worst alot worse. Hell u even banned someone who made a ban appeal and got denied. the guy was trying to argue the point but he got banned before he could argue it anymore. No one on the staff team know how to deal with any problems. its just ban u cause well we dont like or broken the rules twice. u would rather ban people then deal with the problems.

@GenOBrien, I don't know why you're bashing them on certain points like "talking" or "communication" when you're one of the worst at it since you're always so anti-social and depressed all the time.

You also isolate yourself from everyone else on teamspeak and hide in the moderator channel. You don't have to use a mic to be able to move yourself to the channel where everyone is talking in.

@Tiny - Why do you even post. You're one of the worst human beings that's ever set foot on this planet. You're no better than 90% of the people you bash. Or are you just posting because you and Gen have a thing for the same e-girl who's probably not even a girl with all the fake pictures she puts up of herself.

I can't say MPF sucks as a whole. I will say zunnie avoids all the negative problems and hides under a rock because he doesn't want to deal with it so any MPF bashings by a moderator or staff member results in a kick. Not to mention they backstabbed Ice and now she's at rencorner. Let them figure it out for themselves how stupid some decisions are. The community is dead. Their ren server is the only thing pumping out players and even that is near dead these days. Their ren-x servers get no publicity at all.

i think the only legitimate thing GenOBaby mentioned is that Zunnie completely ignores any and all criticism

it's good to make a goal and stick to it no matter what other people say, but in this case much of the criticism is very legitimate and would lead to a much better MPF product were it addressed

it's a lot less fun fine-tuning a system, map, or overall project than simply creating new ideas and working on them instead the end result here is a lot of variety, but a sacrifice in overall quality to achieve it (unless you're the type of person that views variety as quality, which is completely fine too)

Tiny should feel bad about how much of a tool he's been on numerous occasions over the years - i do have to thank him for buying my girlfriend and me pizza that one time, though!

there's something Xpert is right about: Tessa probably has a penis sorry Gen - best to leave that one alone

most of the people picking fun at grammar in the last page or two had a bunch of their own 2nd grade errors that made me feel a bit bad for reading in the first place

Have a nice day

Is that something you learned while you were flooding other Servs back the days? You have no Friends @ MPF and nobody wants you back there, you should realize that you and your ITSkills are not important in any Way, but keep trying

i actually feel bad for Azazel for once he accuses one guy of adding the IRC ban when it was most likely that guy, and they give him a mother load of shit for it (while never actually denying it) ultimately, they choose to not allow him back on for things he never actually did, aside from suspecting the guy of banning him from IRC in the first place (blaming the victim much)

there is no logic behind this - it's entrapment it would be like them falsely banning a player for cheats (it would not be the first time) and then keeping them banned because their ban post included profanity
good work MPF staff

Sean does say one line that's pretty stupid though

Quote:@ MDK As you yourself know better than most, When you're banned for no reason, you want an answer - that's all I want and of course I'd like to be unbanned or at least given a reason as to why I have been banned.

knowing MDK, any place that banned him was well warranted in doing so even his ban from RenForums was completely justified

where was MDK banned for cheating? he's said Jelly did so dozens of times over the years, and if you actually believed that you're stupid for taking MDK at his word alone if that were the case, why is he still banned at Jelly to this day?

observation - you spend too much time around or defending bibi, who is insultingly stupid truthfully you probably would not if she was not a female

Kickmofo has a history of going insane when he thinks other players are cheating (i remember him getting removed from Jelly for an incident with AnThRaX that made me imagine him eating his fucking keyboard in a fit of rage)

I spend time defending bibi? LOL. That's your observation? I laugh at the fact that this retard of an admin flips his shit at the most random stuff, even on teamspeak and does it in public. It's pure comedy. I give 2 shits about bibi.

And the only reason why I posted those logs is because out of the 2 that got in trouble, bibi got removed as a moderator and kickmofo walked away clean out of the whole issue.

i think any time spent defending bibi is probably too much time lol in this case though, that's very interesting he was clearly being abusive, but she was the one that took the fall in MPF land, maybe that makes sense Kick's words say it best - come back to me when you're an admin meaning he can say and do whatever he wants because he holds a higher status lol any comments zunnie? another issue to be sidestepped i'm sure, which is the norm with anything concerning MPF and its staff carry on i can fully back Captpo0ed in his argument - Kickmofo has a habit of just spamming all caps at people and expecting them to obey

he comes across as a seriously angry robot instead of a human being lol brings me back to the Kickmofo incident with AnThRaX

the guy was in the wrong for attacking team vehicles, but it could have been handled much better rather than acknowledge that, the MPF bandwagon hops on Kick for support to attack the guy - it's like gang mentality or something

oh well - carry on MPF
