I see you still read these forums and I wanted to let you know a couple of my observations....

1. Glacier flying is the worst map in renegade, hands down. The only thing going for it is that it's a flying map; however, I've never understood why you made it flying and then decided it'd be a good idea to make it super enclosed. Don't even get me started on why you decided to make it with base defenses since they are completely worthless.

2. I saw you bashing renegade x in a previous post... weren't you one of the top people in APB? Possibly the shittiest mod ever made for renegade?

That's it. My first renegade forums post I believe. That's how it's done, folks.

Oh. And one more thing aircraftkiller... Suck it. Long and hard.

a path beyond is the best renegade mod i've ever played if it sucks in any way it's only because the game renegade has dated itself, but it accurately portrays relalert1 in 3d, it's the old game engine that's aged that i think is the problem

EDIT:Now if you could take all the excellent artwork like 3d models/maps/textures etc.etc. and apply it to a nice game engine!!!

You gotta admit it would be an awesome Red Alert game? agreed?

And I never got how people hated the glacier flying map i find it very creative and i love the complexity, when going from main base to the other base, you wouldn't know which direction your main base is in. the tunnels and neat tiberium and many other things

Maybe take out the flying vehicles and it might be better

Toast is a delicious part of a balanced Renebreakfast. It is known by MPFologists to contain at least 25% of your daily humour needs, 10% of your daily drama needs, and 5% of your hatred of humanity needs. Talk to your doctor before you have toast if you have at least 100 IQ points, feel depressed over the stupidity of humanity, or have promised a map with a single player power plant and construction yard.

I remembered now, Flyingbuzz was his name. It was back on the original Westwood Renegade Forums. He released flying versions of all the maps ahead of Westwood but when you ran them it stole your CD-Key and posted it to his website. I found an old thread where I was pestering him on AIM like 4 years later (Nearly 10 years ago) about what he did.
