Hey,

question, back in the days of non-TT it was possible to edit the own serial using the registry. I noticed lately that when i manually edit the serial,the registry stores the serial, but after i join via Renlist on a Server, it changes back to my old serial.

Is that a bug or does it just come with the TT Programm as a feature lets name it?!

Don't use triggerbot and get caught with it, then you wouldn't have to change your serial

Now why would you be trying to change your serial?

Can't have anything to do with being caught cheating a month ago

OMG can there be a more stupid post? Serious denial here.

Xpert's answer was pretty much spot on. Yeah you can't play without cheating and don't want the ipdb to identify you. (Truly embarrassing dude.)

Stay away from the game DJ for everyone's sake it is better. We are thoroughly enjoying no drama. Go back to what you do best = masturbating to German soccer players.

P.S. It's obvious you want (crave) attention otherwise you could have sent a PM to a TT person. Unless your just as stupid as toast. Oh wait.....you are.

DJ nobody was trying to be helpful, we were just pointing out that you're likely trying to change your serial because you can't get around your triggerbot ban until you do - cheater roszek's link may still work, but that was made long before TT and I'm not sure it does... otherwise you can simply re-install Renegade and pick a different serial in the installer

Thx for that link roszek.

But this also doesnt exactly answer my Question, i was wondering if it is a Bug that it switches back to your old Serial even tho u edited it before in registry, or if TT was originally made to do so. I could also just simply reinstall Renegade, but i would like to know if i have to or not in case i want to use a different Serial...

It's likely that either you didn't change your serial in the right place or that you didn't delete/recreate a certain file that's necessary for serial decryption.

We have all the proof we need to confirm that you were using a triggerbot. In fact we even know exactly which triggerbot you were using.

1. Thank you.

3. This triggerbot detection, is it something from TT or selfmade?
We had a test of triggerbot Anticheat in RR, but it had false positives by running other programs like Teamviewer in the background. (Can't remember all, it's been a while.)

You are such a loser dude. "Got my question answered" LMAOROFL. May as well post na-na-nah-na-na. You're like 30 something? You act a 12 year old still in diapers. Like I said, denial and now rage. Proof mommy, I want proof! Who says we have to show you anything?

We know the facts:

You didn't start playing this until 2009 or 2010 years after its best days. It killed you that you didn't have the skills of players that started this in Demo days. You seem to think excellence in this game is some kind of life status for you. You seem to think you made a name for yourself like the real pro players of the game, but all you did was create a loser - beat on me name. I guess your real life sucks so bad, this is all you have. I feel sorry for you DJ and that you had to cheat, probably for a long time now, (caught by two different communities), to achieve the inner self worth you so crave. Truly sad. Maybe you are a candidate for Dr. Phil now, may want to contact the show. lol

Do yourself a favor and GTFO and never post again anywhere. You never had anything in this game and now your done by self infliction.

Selbstgemacht, darum posten sie ja auch nichts als Beweis, weil sie keinen haben^^

Argumentieren brauchste mit denen auch nicht, weil sie einfach keine Argumente haben, haste ja in dem Topic gelesen, bannen weil ist bequemer, ich war ja schon immer etwas schwierig, da ich aber zu gut für viele ihres Staffs war haben sie n grund gesucht mich zu bannen, Noobs halt

he even lost Cronus, his biggest and possibly only supporter this guy is just another delusional Renegade player - he's never done anything even above average without using a cheat or abusing glitches as hard as he possibly can to snipe against players out in the open like troopr02, he'll never admit he was wrong - he should probably make his own community again where he won't have to ban evade to play

Thats not new to me shaitan, my Post was actually more related to the fact TT changes the serial back to the one you used by installing even tho u edited it in the registry. But as i said, i already got my answer to the question.
