I've been busy working on a new map for C&C Renegade Mutant Co-Op server, but after 4 (or more) months is finally here. If you did follow my streams, you would know

Watch the map trailer here

This is a map contained in Experiments of Rainbow Factory campaign (made by me) for Mutant Co-Op.

We will have the map in our server tonight, get ready commander!

See you in game tonight!

ps: please no messages like 'I could do it better', at least appreciate the work, I know I'm not an expert mapper.

my favorite part was the hand jobs at :39

Quote:You can play the map on Mutant Co-Op today! Enter the Factory where Kane experiments on tiberium like never before!
from the looks of it, Kane was fucked out of his mind on bath salts

the spinning gears that you kept showing could use more detail, but it doesn't really matter because no one is going to stand there staring at the wall for 5 minutes

the Hand of Nod is at least 12 miles away from the Airstrip, so Nod infantry will be kept in top shape on this map overall, the factory interior looks neat - it gives good ol' Renegade a different look and feel
