As you said before the Hind is a transport helicopter would you be able to some how make it so people could slide down a rope like in Rengade SP that way the heli wouldnt have to touch down and it would be sooo cool.

I said the Soviet Union in the real world designed it as a flying APC, not the Soviet Union in Red Alert.

If this mod was about Russian military or whatever in real life, then maybe, but since this is a Red Alert mod, and it didn't do that in Red Alert, then no.

That's the reason why the sniper is being included...

There wasn't any in Red Alert, and we all know that every game needs some kind of sniper.

What?

Last 3 posts by you were laying down the law in an appropriate and sometimes funny manner.

I just seemed to follow your replies around the forum and couldn't help noticing, thats all.

Lol!!!

You make me laugh little child...

You think you have the devine right to insult and flame others when you want without backlash?

But as soon as you get a not-so-positive-reply to them it's "I don't need your damn attitude." Come on, grow up.
