does anyone else get the bug where u can't switch to walkthrough mode?

I mash the f5-f8 heys and click on them also ...and sometimes it will get into walkthrough mode...

Now i created VIS and im f'ckn mashin the hell out of everything and can't get into walkthrough for the life of me!!!

Sometimes when I've turned Commando off and then on again I get a bug where I can't go into walkthrough mode. It's like it can't load direct input or something.

Only way I found to fix it is restart the computer.
