Looks pretty kool...

If you wan't to improve it you could develop a better banner or add some more interactive features like Polls pictures of the day...

It is nice to see a bit of orignality on a site wehere possible...

Personally I like sites taht give you the option of either e-mailing the webmaster or submitting a form...

Just a few ideas for content , but the design looks good to me.

It's a bit simplistic, but if done correctly a minimalist style can be quite effective. I would question running a site for E:BFD, since only the hardest of the hardcore play it anymore. =)
