First of all CHEATOR! second, there are none, just the Extras code which gives a couple Extra vehicles and charecters for both teams. Code is "extras fnkqrm"

Then hold "alt" while clicking either Vehicles or Charecters

Are you looking for single player cheats or multiplayer cheats ? If its SP I dont see why anyone should care. If its multiplayer then prepare to be called bad names

Either way I don't know any cheat but it is important that this be cleared up to avoid useless YOU FREAKING CHEATER POST when they are not warranted (ie seeking SP cheats).

You CHEETO! Seriously man the Single player isn't that hard, and the Multiplayer... Well it's best not to cheat online... People get pretty hot headed. Plus that defeats the purpose of a match of skills. Westwood was pretty ontop of things as far as cheating goes and I really do not know of any succesful attempts to hack the game or anything. Other than the WWE guys getting into the chat servers.

Cheator!!!

If you really must, it is not hard to find trainers for Single Player...

As Doitle said Single Player is not hard. I find I can complete it easily on commando mode now...

You are gonna have to survive without cheats if you ever want to be any good online. The only cheats I use are mods that everybody will have during a game to make it more interesting like on CTF_Forts you can run faster or the Gun_Run_Mod you can jump super high with the infantry and come floating back down and you also get different vehicles like the flying harvester .
