Okay, so it's probably been discussed plenty already, but I wen through 4 pages and didn't find it soooo... which one?

I'm a NOD player. I like fast vehicles, the Apache just looks badass and Stealth units just have a million and one uses. Plus the Technician isn't some little ugly chick.

Dude, Hotwire is hot. She's got that lazy eye thing going on.

(For you twits that don't know sarcasm when you see it, that was it.)

I would have to go with Nod. Because their tech... and stealth guys/tanks are bad ass. Of course, you need a great team in order to get this going. And a slow rush are usually on GDI side. I like fast paced Nod... the only problem is that you need a great team as well.

And YV_Seth will be greatly be displeased if people would go to GDI.

Yup, you definitely need skill to make the most out of Nod.

I just played Nod on the Alpine map. That place is GREAT for stealth units! Even I can't see my own Stealth Tank against the snow!

My perfect world would have Nod Infantry and Med Tanks... since that doesn't usually happen unless you find newbies getting out of meds... then I just make do with whichever team I'm in...

Hm I'm definitely like GDI.

The M1A1 (Medtank) is my favorite vehicle it owns there is no better vehicle for fight against tanks and infantry (especially Snipers)

Anyways I can identify more with the aims of GDI than the Brotherhood of Nod's.

Nod. The Black Hands (SBH and LCG) are good, and I think the Light Tank is the best.

GDI. Can't be without a med tank for long.

Very good all-around vehicle.

Definitely love my Med Tank. A little too slow to crush infantry and nearly useless against Apaches, but other than that good all-around. I never buy Mammoths anymore, they're just too slow.

I have always preferred Nod since tiberian dawn. They are cooler, You have to know what your doing to use them (I HAVE MAMMY YOU ALL DIEEEEE... Hey wheres my mammy?). And Kane is awesome. Screw Solomon, Shepard, and Locke.

Its more fun to use them because they have more strategical opportunities with their stanks and stuff.

Nod has the best advanced infantry. Sneaky SBHs and Raveshaws, Hot Sakura, and Powerful LCBH and Chem Spray Infantry! But their Infantry sucks against buildings, where GDI's gunner rocks (in groups of 3-5)

the NOD-Nod thing

BTW, Nod all the way!

a light tank can easily defeat mammoth because of it's speed

Untrue. The light can run up under the barrels of the mammy, and shoot with little fear of retribution. No matter how experienced.

i think flame tanx are the best they can usually take out a med and a mammy and are quite good 4 killing buildings, the only problem is that they arent usefull on the map field, 2 med tanx at the gdi base entrance can take out almost anything on that map.

Well then that's what Mobile Artillery supported by techs/engineers are for!
