I was in a 16 player game on mesa and there were only 2 players yet. Me and brianep. I asked him nicely not to destroy harv because i wanted to sneak behind to get in Nod obelix . He didn;t react and bought a tank and went shooting on the harv. I begged him not to destroy it paged em, even tried to repair the harv but he wasted it anyway. No respons at all. Then he got attacked and screamed I need repairs. I was still there with a Hotwire and didn't repaired him because he was mad. So I got in his tank aftre he bought a new one. I wanted to steal and waste it as soon as he got out. Unfortunately he 'didn't dared to repair his tank with me close to his tank . Other players kept repairing him so I bought a hummer and blocked him when he wanted to pull back because his tank was about to blown. Then later in the game I stole his apc when he hopped out to repair the AGT and save it just before it got destroyed.
