Will it ever be fixed? Without automated win/loss reporting you can kiss Renegade's clan scene good bye

I hope it's just down temporarily and not permanently. If so, it's a sad day indeed.

SPAM! SPAM! SPAM!

J/K. Cool I can't wait for it to be up. That should help bring people to REOL. I would run a server on it more often then.

One question as well. Is Reveno always going to be so that you don't need a password to get on. If it is then I don't see whats stopping someone from getting on the top ladderd players name and taking wins or loosing on purpose. Last time I played Reveno you didn't need any kind of password at all to join. I also noticed that your login name could have foul language in it. Gonnnnnna be hard to regulate if it isn't changed.

Who cares if the ladder goes down? Its just for people who play the game almost 24/7 coz most of the people at the top do that.

Actually no, they're still quite interesting and entertaining. A little slow for me though, but that's due to my own shitty connection.

Can't wait for this are you gonna need to register for REOL or will it have a copy of WOL's usernames?

the clanwars ladder takes the results from the ladder, since games not reporting, clanwars cant report so clans go bye-bye REvno only works if you like giving everyone complege access to your name. They don't have it set up to where it password protets your name. Anyone can log on any name at any time.

Yeah what are they gonna do about that? I don't want some half-witted stupid shit comin on my name and fuckin up my ranking. And I'm sure players in the top 50 will be pissed to find out they have 1000's of losses and they really have only losed a few times.
