Ask jrpereira, hes a good mapper. Try titan1x77 as well. Thos models look like they are coming along nicely. I wish i could help, but i cant do either of those things yet. Still learning. Ill try to get some help for you, as id like to see the final result.

I liked stickdeath, but it lagged a bit. Argggv2 was a great mod to rack up some points and fool around. the maps in that were low grade, but still fun to play on.

Good luck on the mod . Keep up the Good work.

Dont listen to ack

I can do all of the Level Edit stuff for maps and set up custom scripts.
